GENERAL INFORMATION FOR BUYERS AT AUCTION

- 1. Introduction. The following notices are intended to assist buyers, particularly those that are new to our saleroom and internet bidding platforms. Our auctions are governed by our Terms and Conditions of Business incorporating the Terms of Consignment, the Terms of Sale supplemented by any notices that are displayed in our saleroom, the online catalogue listing or announced by the auctioneer at the auction. Our Terms and Conditions of Business are available for inspection at our saleroom and online at www.forumauctions.co.uk. Our staff will be happy to help you with any questions you may have regarding our Terms and Conditions of Business. Please make sure that you read our Terms of Sale set out in this catalogue and on our website carefully before bidding in the auction. In registering to bid with us you are committing to be bound by our Terms of Sale.
- 2. Agency. As auctioneers we usually act on behalf of the seller whose identity, for reasons of confidentiality, is not normally disclosed. If you buy at auction your contract for the goods is with the seller, not with us as auctioneer.
- 3. Estimates. Estimates are intended to indicate the hammer price that a particular lot may achieve. The lower estimate may represent the reserve price (the minimum price for which a lot may be sold) and cannot be below the reserve price. Estimates do not include the buyer's premium, VAT or other taxes and fees (where chargeable). Estimates may be altered by a saleroom notice.
- 4. Buyer's Premium. The Terms of Sale oblige you to pay a buyer's premium on the hammer price of each lot purchased. All lots are offered under the Auctioneer's Margin Scheme and VAT (at 20%) is included within the buyer's premium. Our rate of buyer's premium is 30% of the first £300,000 of the hammer price, reducing to 24% of the hammer price from £300,001 to £5,000,000 and then 15% of the hammer price in excess of £5,000,000. Buyers wishing to purchase lots outside the margin scheme must notify us and will be subject to VAT (currently at 20%) on the hammer price in addition to buyer's premium (and other applicable charges) which may be reclaimed as input VAT or in the event of export outside the EU.
- 5. Items with zero rated VAT. Please note that no VAT is added to the buyers' premium on certain zero rated goods, such as qualifying books.
- 6. Inspection of goods by the buyer. You will have ample opportunity to inspect the goods and must do so for any lots that you might wish to bid for. Please note carefully the exclusion of liability for the condition of lots set out in Clauses 5 and 8 of our Terms of Sale.
- 7. Export of goods. If you intend to export goods you must find out in advance if - a. there is a prohibition on exporting goods of that charactere e.g. if the goods contain prohibited materials such as ivory
 - b. they require an Export Licence on the grounds of exceeding a specific age and/or monetary value threshold as set by the Export Licensing unit. We are happy to make the submission of necessary applications on behalf of our buyers but we will charge for this service only to cover the costs of our time.
- 8. Bidding. Bidders will be required to register with us before bidding. Purchases will be invoiced to the buyer's registered name and address only. When first registering for an account with us you will need to provide us with proof of your identity in a form acceptable to us. IN REGISTERING TO BID YOU AGREE TO BE BOUND BY OUR TERMS OF SALE REGARDLESS OF YOUR METHOD OF BIDDING AND IN PLACING A BID YOU ARE MAKING AN IRREVOCABLE AND ENFORCEABLE COMMITMENT TO PURCHASE THE LOT.

- 9. Commission bidding. You may leave commission bids with us indicating the maximum amount (excluding the buyer's premium and/or any applicable VAT, fees or other taxes) you authorise us to bid on your behalf for a lot. We will execute commission bids at the lowest price possible having regard only to the reserve and other competing bids on the lot. Please note that we accept commission bids at standard bidding increments and reserve the right to reduce an off-increment bid down to the next lowest bidding increment or otherwise at our sole discretion.
- 10. Live online bidding. When using our BidFORUM platform to participate in the auction through your account on our website there will be no additional charges. If you are using a third party live bidding platform then additional fees may be applicable. We will invoice these to you as an additional service and any applicable VAT will be separated out.
- 11. Methods of Payment. We accept payments only in the currency in which the invoice is issued and payment is due within 3 working days of the auction. We process card payments securely over our website and accept and all major debit and credit cards issued by a UK or EU bank free of charge from personally issued cards only. If paying with a corporate card, or from outside the EU, an additional 3% charge will be levied on the invoice total. We also accept bank transfers, cash payments up to an equivalent of €10,000, and cheques issued by a UK bank. All funds need to have cleared into our account before items are collected. For bank transfers, please quote the Invoice Number as the payee reference:

Our bank details for electronic transfers are: HSBC, 16 King St, London WC2E 8JF Account Name: Forum Auctions Limited Account Number: 12213079 Sort Code: 40-04-09 IBAN: GB44HBUK40040912213079 BIC: HBUKGB4106D

- 12. Collection and storage. Please note what the Terms of Sale say about collection and storage. It is important that you pay for and collect your goods promptly. Any delay may result in you having to pay storage charges of at least £1.50 per Lot per day as set out in Clause 7 of our Terms of Sale and interest charges of 1.5% per month on the Total Amount Due as set out in Clause 15 of our Terms of Sale.
- 13. Loss and Damage to Goods. We are not authorised by the FCA to provide insurance services. Liability for a lot passes to the buyer on the fall of the hammer or conclusion of an online auction (as applicable). In the event that you wish for us to continue to accept liability for your purchased lots this must be agreed with us in writing in advance of the sale and any agreed charges are payable before collection of the goods.

14. Symbols within the catalogue

- a. ARR denotes a lot where Artist's Resale Right or Droit de Suite royalty charges may be applicable to the Lot. Presently these charges are levied on a sliding scale at 4% of the hammer price up to Euro 50,000; 2% from Euro 50,001 to 200,000; 1% from Euro 200,001 to 350,000; 0.5% from Euro 350,001 to 500,000; and 0.25% above Euro 500,000 subject always to a maximum royalty charge of Euro 12,500. We will collect and pay royalty charges on your behalf and calculate the £ sterling equivalent of the Euro amount.
- b. MPORT denotes that Import VAT at 5% is payable on the hammer price of the Lot.
- c. VAT denotes that VAT at 20% is payable on the hammer price, which may be reclaimable as input VAT.
- 15. Shipping. We can assist with the packing and shipping of your purchases by arrangement with our shipping department. Please contact shipping@forumauctions.co.uk for a list of shippers we regularly use together with indicative pricing for packing and shipping.

Great Exhibition.- Illustrated London News (The) GRAND PANORAMA OF THE GREAT EXHIBITION ALL NATIONS 1851, presenting parallel views of both sides of the exhibition hall, with text beneath, wood-engraving with original hand-colouring, on 11 sheets joined, total approx. 280 x 6,280 mm. (11 x 247 in.), mounted on linen, first metre with minor nicks and tears to edges with small amounts of loss, thereafter occasional small nicks, some handling creases and surface toning, one end with wooden roller, the other with red cloth flap, creased, [1851-52].

& Scarce in coloured state, most copies appear without.

Martin (John) PARADISE LOST: BY JOHN MILTON, FIRST EDITION IN THE ORIGINAL 12 PARTS, IMPERIAL QUARTO ISSUE CONTAINING THE LARGER SET OF MEZZOTINT PLATES, with the complete set of 24 plates (2 to each part) as issued, platemarks each c. $355 \times 255 \text{ mm}$ ($14 \times 10 \text{ in}$), sheets c. $385 \times 276 \text{ mm}$ ($15\% \times 10\% \text{ in}$), tissue-guards, some scattered marginal foxing, 2 small puncture marks to both plates of part 11, not affecting image but within platemark, original roan-backed grey-blue wrappers, part 1 sympathetically rebacked, upper wrapper chipped at upper corner, part 3 spine faded with wear to foot, part

11 upper wrapper torn at head with very small loss, some light general soiling or faint spotting to covers, occasional rubbing to spine ends, untrimmed and partially unopened, the 12 parts preserved in a custom drop-back box, folio, Septimus Prowett, 1825-26.

* Very rare in the original parts. The mezzotint process entails a considerable application of ink on the page, often resulting in heavy foxing; but the mezzotints in this copy are remarkably clean. Publication took nearly two years, the parts issued as Martin's mezzotints were completed, the order of images not necessarily correlating with the text.

The engravings were greeted with outstanding critical acclaim, prompting the release of 4 further editions by the end of 1827. The critic for The Literary Gazette proclaimed: "we know no artist, whose genius so perfectly fitted him being the illustrator of the mighty Milton; and in what we have seen of his conceptions he has more than realised the highest of our hopes. There is a wildness, a grandeur, and a mystery about his designs which are indescribably fine:- the painter is also a poet." [The Literary Gazette, April 2nd 1825].

Native Americans.- A NARRATIVE OF OCCURRENCIES IN THE INDIAN COUNTRIES OF NORTH AMERICA, FIRST EDITION, engraved folding hand-coloured map (with small closed tear at edge, paper repair to verso, light off-setting), p.iii small manuscript ink inscription, title with light fingersoiling, original printed wrappers, rebacked with cloth, some soiling, [Sabin 20699, ascribed to T. Douglas], 8vo, B. McMillan, 1817.

♣ Rare with map. Full title continues, "since the connexion of the Right Hon. the Earl of Selkirk with the Hudson's Bay Company, and his attempt to establish a colony on the Red River; with a detailed account of His Lordship's military expedition to, and subsequent proceedings at Fort William, in Upper Canada". This work bears testimony to the feud between the Hudson Bay Company and the North West Company of Montreal, which was brought to a close by their unification in 1821. It is also important for the development of Manitoba province. Authorship attributed to several individuals: Thomas Douglas; E. Ellice (as per ink inscription in this copy); Simon McGillivray and Samuel Hull Wilcocke.

Australia.- Nightingale (Florence) NOTE ON THE ABORIGINAL RACES OF AUSTRALIA, FIRST SEPARATE EDITION, 8pp., sewn as issued, first and last leaf detached, the former chipped at inner edge, [Ferguson 13393], 8vo, Emily Faithfull, 1865.

☆ "A Paper read at the Annual Meeting of the National Association for the Promotion of Social Science, held at York, September, 1864", and previously printed in the Transactions of the National Association for the Promotion of Social Science' 1864, pp. 552-558.

Rare paper on the result of a study conducted by Nightingale into the mortality rates in "native schools" in Britain's colonies. She concludes that European customs have been detrimental to the health of aboriginal races and that they will die out unless action is taken.

Library Hub records only one printed copy (BL) and we can trace only two copies at auction, in 2001 and earlier this year in these rooms.

Egypt.- Lane (Edward William, Arabic scholar and Egyptologist, 1801-1876) ALBUM COMPRISING 23 FINE ORIGINAL STUDIES FROM THE ARTIST'S TOURS OF EGYPT, photographic portrait of a sculptural bust of Lane, two fully worked drawings with watercolour, 11 monochrome watercolour with pen and ink landscapes and views of the pyramids, Great Sphinx of Giza and other colossal sculptures, and with 10 pencil studies of wall reliefs, many with pencil inscriptions identifying locations verso, each approx. 175 x 95 mm (6% x 3¾ in), all neatly mounted on thick card album leaves, on stubs interleaved with Whatman wove paper, Whatman watermarks visible to some card leaves with possible dates '[18[?3]8', some scattered spotting and browning, minor finger soiling, later handsome half green morocco, gilt, spine lettered erroneously by binder 'C.W. Lane', g.e., in green cloth presentation box, 4to, probably late 1820s

Provenance:

Mrs May C. Buckton (according to note found with book)

Private collection, Buckinghamshire; from whom acquired by the present owner

* Fine presentation album containing detailed and precise drawings from Lane's tours of Egypt undertaken in the late 1820s; almost certainly produced with the aid of a camera lucida. The two watercolours appear to relate to other similar highly finished but apparently unpublished illustrations produced by Lane for his "Description of Egypt". Other examples of Lane's sketchbooks and comparable camera lucida drawings are held in the British Library. Of the many locations and views included in the present album, there are several highlights: 'The Southern Entrance to Rosetta'; 'Profile view of the Great Sphinx of Giza', 'Sunset over the Pyramids'; and many detailed studies of sculptural reliefs found in the Karnak Temple Complex

Le Hay (Jacques) and Charles de Ferriol, RECUEIL DE CENT ESTAMPES REPRESENTANT DIFFERENTES NATIONS DU LEVANT, 2 parts in 1, FIRST EDITION, engraved title, 103 plates, including 3 double-page and one of music, some browning and water-staining, mostly marginal, a couple of short tears, contemporary mottled sheep, gilt, rubbed, extremities worn, [Atabey 429; Blackmer 591; Colas 1819-1820; Lipperheide 413, 414], folio, Paris, Jacques Collombat, 1714-15.

* "The plates are after drawings by J. B. Van Mour who was established in Constantinople for many years during the first half of the 18th c. It has been suggested that he came to Constantinople in 1699, possibly as part of Ferriol's entourage. He is known to have died there in 1737 at the age of 66. Much of his work was done for Cornelius Calkoen, who was Dutch ambassador to the Porte, and some of these paintings are now to be found in the Amsterdam Rijkmuseum. This publication certainly contained the most popular and influential illustrations of Turkish dress to date. Its use as a source book was widespread." (Blackmer).

Polar.- Benham (Daniel) SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF JAN AUGUST MIERTSCHING, INTERPRETER OF THE ESQUIMAUX LANGUAGE TO THE ARCTIC EXPEDITION ON BOARD H.M.S. "INVESTIGATOR", CAPTAIN M'CLURE, FIRST EDITION, portrait frontispiece on India paper, scattered spotting to frontispiece and title, light offsetting onto title, yellow endpapers, original dark blue cloth, bumping and fraying to spine ends and corners, short split to head of upper joint, darkening to spine and covers, 4to, William Mallalieu and Co., 1854.

A RARE POLAR TITLE, WE CAN TRACE ONLY 4 COPIES AT AUCTION IN THE LAST 50 YEARS. Miertsching (1817-75) learnt the language of the Inuit whilst teaching as a missionary in the settlement of Okak in North Labrador. He was contacted by the British Admiralty who asked him to accompany their enterprise to fine the survivors of the Franklin Expedition. Mierstching would keep a diary of his experiences on the expedition, published in Gnadau in 1855.

-. Nares (Capt. Sir George S.) JOURNAL AND PROCEEDINGS OF THE ARCTIC EXPEDITION, 1875-76... PRESENTED TO BOTH HOUSES OF PARLIAMENT BY COMMAND OF HER MAJESTY, FIRST EDITION, 32 maps and plates, most folding, of which a few with small tears at edge or fold, 2 with paper or tape repairs to verso, an additional folding map laid-down to title verso (backed with linen), ink stamp to title, title laid-down to linen, modern cloth, folio, 1877.

♣ First edition of Nare's account of the British Arctic Expedition, searching for the North Pole. He became the first explorer to take his ships, the Alert and Discovery, all the way north through the channel between Greenland and Ellesmere Island - now named Nares Strait in his honour - to the Lincoln Sea. Popular contemporary theory held that this route would lead to the supposed 'Open Polar Sea', an ice-free region surrounding the Pole. However, Nares found only a wasteland of ice; a sledging party under Albert Hastings Markham set a new record farthest north of 83° 20' 26"N, but the men suffered badly from scurvy and were hampered by inappropriate clothing and equipment. Realizing that his men could not survive another winter in the ice, Nares hastily retreated southward with both his ships in the summer of 1876. Additional map here present: "Map Showing the Voyage of the Pandora".

South East Asia.- St. John (James Augustus) VIEWS IN THE EASTERN ARCHIPELAGO, BORNEO, SARAWAK, LABUAN, FIRST EDITION IN BOOK FORM, tinted lithographed pictorial title, 24 tinted lithographed plates, of which 3 folding, paper guards, some spotting and foxing, including to plates, cracking to gutter with a few plates and text ff. towards the beginning loose, original green cloth, blind-stamped and gilt, a few minor instances of soiling to covers, spine lightly sunned, bumping to spine ends and small tear towards head, [c.f. Abbey, Travel 548 (in parts)], folio, Thomas McLean, 1847.

☆ Scarce. Originally published in parts (see Abbey), the work lauds British influence and expansion within the Eastern Archipelago, in particular the activities of Sir James Brooke in Singapore (which is depicted in one of the plates), Borneo, Labuan and Sarawak, where he became the first governor in 1841. The tinted lithograph views are by J.W. Giles, after drawings made from life by Captain Drinkwater Bethune, Commander L.G. Heath and others.

FROM HIS FRIEND THE AUTHOR" to vol. 1 half-title, 11 lithographic plates (all but one tinted), 6 folding maps, folding table, light foxing and offsetting to plates, original blue cloth, sunning to spines, marking and soiling to covers, spine ends and corners a little bumped, [Hill 918], 8vo, Chapman and Hall, 1846.

* "Keppel was sent to Singapore as senior officer on that part of the station. There he made friends with Sir James Brooke, with whom he returned to Sarawak. For eighteen months he cooperated with Brooke for the suppression of Borneo piracy, and, after many engagements, the Dido, together with the East India Company's steamship Phlegethon, destroyed the chief stronghold of the pirates, together with some 300 prahus" - ODNB.

West Indies.- Poyntz (Captain John) THE PRESENT PROSPECT OF THE FAMOUS AND FERTILE ISLAND OF TOBAGO TO THE SOUTHWARD OF BARBADOES. WITH A DESCRIPTION OF THE SCITUATION, GROWTH, FERTILITY AND MANUFACTURE OF THE SAID ISLAND, second edition, title within double filet border, trimmed, affecting part of border on title, signature-marks and catchwords, and just touching the odd headline or page number, title and final f. browned and soiled, occasional spotting, lightly browned, 18th century marbled boards, rebacked in modern calf, gilt, [Sabin 64857; Wing P3131], small 4to, Printed by John Attwood for the author, and sold by William Staresmore, 1695.

A 'very well informed survey' (Oxford DNB). In 1681 four ships commanded by Poyntz captured a Dutch settlement on Tobago, and thereafter he obtained 120,000 acres on behalf of a group of merchants. Two years later he published the first edition of this pamphlet promoting the benefits of the island as a place to settle. The work describes the climate, flora (including bananas, pomegranates and pineapples), fauna, and timber of the island, and outlines prospects for growing cocoa, sugar-cane, and tobacco. Poyntz granted 1000 acres to the antiquary John Aubrey as a reward for services rendered.

Meyer (Cornelius) L'ARTE DI RESTITUIRE A ROMA LA TRALASCIATA NAVIGATIONE DEL SUO TEVERE, 3 parts in 1 vol., additional engraved title present in 2 states, 68 engraved illustrations & maps including 6 double-page, letterpress title with woodcut ornament, woodcut decorations and initials, one bifolium browned, light damp-stain to head of titles and dedication leaf, otherwise very good, Rome, Lazzari Varese, 1685; Nuovi Ritrovamenti..., 2 parts in 1 vol., title with engraved vignette, 49 engraved illustrations including 5 double-page, small worm-tracks affecting upper margin throughout, engraved bookplate bearing Odescalchi family coat-of-arms by Michelassi on front pastedown, Rome, Gio. Giacomo Komarek Boemo, 1696, EACH VOL. INSCRIBED BY THE AUTHOR WITH 'EX DONO AUTHORIS' ink inscription on front pastedown and front fly-leaf respectively, occasional light spotting, uniform contemporary vellum, some chipping and wear to spines, folio (2)

AN EXCELLENT PAIR OF WORKS, SCARCE COMPLETE THUS AND IN SUCH GOOD CONDITION AND WITH AN INTERESTING ASSOCIATION. The first work has a printed dedication to the then Pope, Blessed Pope Innocent XI, Benedetto Odescalchi, so it is probable considering the presence of the Odescalchi bookplate that both these volumes were presented to him directly, inscribed by the author.

The first volume is a treatise on hydrology in which Meyer considers several technical solutions to the problems of navigating the Tiber. The second volume, Nuovi ritrovamenti, is a collection of various treatises on experiments, discoveries, technologies and natural phenomena, including the eclipse of Jupiter's first satellite, the sun and the Earth, and the comet that appeared in 1680, 1682 and 1684.

PSALTER, USE OF LIÈGE, IN Latin, illuminated manuscript on vellum, 117 leaves (plus 2 modern paper endleaves at front and back), wanting the Beatus initial leaf from opening of main text, another single leaf from the fifth quire and some quires from the end: now ending abruptly midway through the Litany, else complete, collation: i⁶, ii-iv⁸, v⁷ (that originally the second leaf in quire removed), vi-xv⁸, text in single column of 23 lines of a good early gothic bookhand, one-line initials in red or blue, 2-line initials in gold on blue and pink grounds heightened with white penwork, twelve calendar illustrations of the occupations of the months (each of a human figure in burnished gold robes), ten large historiated initials in blue or pink with central scenes on burnished gold grounds, the whole within a gold frame and with coloured foliate extensions on thick gold grounds extending into the borders on up to three sides, a few leaves with ink flaking away and smudged, a few smudges to initials, leaves at each end slightly cockled, a few spots and stains, else in good condition, 169 x 120mm., bound by Budden of Cambridge in 19thcentury red morocco over bevelled boards, each board tooled in rows of foliate designs and spine with six compartments with a single flowerbud, gilt edge and gauffered, 8vo, Southern Netherlands (Liège), [c.1270].

* The sequence of gold-clad figures in the Calendar and glittering historiated initials here set this apart as one of the most visually arresting PSALTERS TO BE PRODUCED IN LIÈGE IN THE 13TH CENTURY. The atelier that produced this manuscript has been identified by Judith Oliver, and named after its principal production: a Psalter now Paris, BnF., Latin 1077. The artists who collaborated in this atelier appear to have been responsible for the importing of the French Gothic style into the Meuse valley. The historiated initials here are especially influenced by the French Gothic style, with tall and elegant figures with delicate expressive faces framed by thick hair, highly placed mouths often in smiles, and clothing edged with a thin white line. The so-called 'third hand' of the Paris Psalter was responsible for the figure painting in the present volume, and in addition notable links exist between the Calendar miniatures here and those in another Psalter from the same atelier: Princeton Art Museum, MS. 57-189, with single figures also in burnished gold robes standing on wavy lines. However, the quality of the work here is finer than that of the Princeton manuscript.

The Calendar miniatures comprise: (1) fol. 1r, feasting beside the fire; (2) fol. 1v, pruning a tree; (3) fol. 2r, digging; (4) fol. 2v, a standing youth; (5) fol. 3r, youth by a tree playing a viol; (6) fol. 3v, man with a basket harvesting; (7) fol. 4r, cutting hay with a scythe; (8) fol. 4v, harvesting wheat with a sickle; (9) fol. 5r, treading grapes in a tub; (10) fol. 5v, sowing seeds; (11) fol. 12r, carrying a hog; (12) fol. 6v, slaughtering an ox. The historiated initials comprise: (i) fol. 7r, David harping; (ii) fol. 22v, Christ healing a blind man; (iii) fol. 40v, an execution; (iv), fol. 41r, King David and the fool; (v) fol. 51r, Christ above Jonah and the whale; (vi) fol. 63v, David playing the bells; (vii) fol. 74v, two monks singing; (viii) King David in prayer; (ix) fol. Christ in majesty; (x) fol. 11r, Doubting Thomas.

This manuscript has been published as J.H. Oliver, Gothic manuscript illumination in the diocese of Liège, 1988, pp. 148-58, ill. 12, 52, 105 and 110.

Provenance: (1) written and illuminated for a wealthy patron in the vicinity of Liège: the Calendar has SS. Domitian, Servatius and Remaclus, bishops of Tongres and Maastricht in the diocese of Liège, as well as Theodardus, Hubert and Lambert (this last saint with three feasts noted), all bishops of Liège; (2) John Gilchrist Clark (1830-82) of Speddoch, Dumfries (and with a note on this manuscript with information from Francis Wormald on Speddoch notepaper included in volume), who married a daughter of William Henry Fox Talbot, the early photographer (and an albumen print of Gilchrist Clark by Camille Silvy, dated 1862, survives in the National Portrait Gallery): his ex libris dated 1851 on first modern endleaf. He also owned a French Book of Hours last appearing on the market in Swann Galleries' sale on 7 March 2019, lot 167; (3) Christie's, 29 November 2000, lot 8, evidently consigned by Gilchrist Clark's descendants, where it sold for £80,750.

ADAM AND HIS DESCENDANTS, HISTORIATED INITIAL ON A BIFOLIUM FROM A LARGE ILLUMINATED BIBLE, IN LATIN, manuscript on vellum, bifolium (with second leaf trimmed vertically to edge of text), with a large historiated initial 'A' (opening "Adam Seth Enos ...", beginning of I Chronicles), in blue with delicate white brushwork overlaid, enclosing Adam as a standing bearded figure holding a scroll before his descendants (here as robed men before a burnished gold ground), the body of the initial with two orange dog-heads at its head turned back to bite their own tendril-like bodies, on muted brown tessellated patterns within a gold frame on which a bird is perched looking at the initial, coloured and gold bars extending down length of inner gutter to a twist of mirrored foliage on gold grounds at base, either side of this two drollery creatures with human upper bodies and wearing friar's habits, one with the legs of a blue horse clutching an open book and waving a club, while chasing the other who has the legs of a stag and waves a sword and buckler above his head, two 2-line initials in red or blue with contrasting penwork, red rubrics, capitals touched in red, double column of 36 lines of a professional gothic bookhand, recovered from a binding and hence discoloured and rubbed in places, with a few small holes caused by ink eating through vellum, overall in fair condition, modern black frame, complete leaf: 420 x 315mm., Southern Netherlands, perhaps Cambrai, [c.1300].

* ILLUMINATION FROM THE SOUTHERN NETHERLANDS FROM THIS EARLY PERIOD IS RARE. This leaf compares closely with a copy of Bernard of Clairvaux's Sermons, probably made in a convent in Cambrai c.1300 (now ÖNB, s.m. 12771: O. Pacht et al., Die Illuminierten Handschriften und Inkunabulen der Österreichschen Nationalbibliothek, Flämische Schulen I, 1983, i:162-4 & ii, pl. 1) and to another manuscript of the same text (now Brussels, Bibl. Royale, MS. 1787: ibid., I, fig. 1) which may be from the same workshop as the ÖNB manuscript. If the drolleries were intended as comic portraits of Franciscan friars, then this may be from the Franciscan convent in Cambrai.

Provenance: (1) Thomas F. Flannery Jr., and sold in Sotheby's, 6 December 1983, lot 14, to (2) Dr H.F. Jossi-Debrunner (1922-86) of Chur, Switzerland, and then in his sale in the same rooms, 4 December 2007, lot 20, to (3) Bloomsbury Auctions, 8 July 2015, lot 66, for £11,050, to the present owner.

Leaf from the celebrated Ghistelles Hours, with a hare playing the bagpipes and a human-drollery dancing, in Latin, illuminated manuscript on vellum, single leaf, with single column of 11 lines in a fine and angular gothic bookhand, red rubrics, line-fillers in red, blue and liquid gold geometric patterns, one-line initials in blue or liquid gold with ornate red or dark blue penwork, two historiated initials in gold on bi-coloured blue and rose grounds, each enclosing a human-headed drollery creature, and with extensions in border forming a frame to text on three sides terminating in gilt animal masks, the hare playing the bagpipes standing on the lower outer edge of this frame on the verso, and the drollery with a woman's torso in the same place on the recto, slightly darkened at edges, some small spots, gold flaked away in places, else in good condition, 120 x 80mm., [Flanders (perhaps Bruges)], [c.1300].

♣ From a fine Book of Hours long associated with John III of Ghistelles (d.1315), lord of Ghistelles and Ingelmunster, whose family arms appear on a number of leaves. The calendar is now at the Walters Art Museum in Baltimore and includes an Easter Table for the years 1300-1316, suggesting its completion immediately before the earliest of these years. It was reportedly owned by Sir Sydney Cockerell (1867-1962), and was certainly imperfect when it was broken by Heinrich Eisemann in 1952. A list of known leaves was published in Medieval and Renaissance Manuscripts in New Zealand Collections, 1989, no. 72.

LEAF FROM THOMAS AQUINAS, CATENA AUREA, A COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPELS, IN LATIN, decorated manuscript on vellum, single leaf, with double columns of 48 lines of Aquinas text in a small and angular gothic bookhand with noted lateral compression, these with the Biblical text set within their bodies in blocks of larger versions of same hand (in format of Glossed Bibles), capitals touched in red, red rubrics, red and blue running titles and versal initials, 2-line initials in red or blue with purple or red contrasting penwork, one large initial 'N' (opening "Nolite iudicare ut ...", Matthew 7:1) in blue, red and green with blank vellum sections left within its body to depict a crowned figure with a drollery tail and foliate ornament, the initial infilled with intersecting triangles of red or purple penwork, with four roundels enclosing drollery animals on red, blue and green grounds, the whole initial set within similar penwork and two similar roundels with another animal and a realistic flower-head, coloured foliate penwork extending throughout entire central gutter and bas-de-page with six similar roundels with animals or foliate sprays, probably recovered from reuse as an endleaf in a later book, and so some small spots and cockling, leaf once made wet in upper outer corner with stains and slight shrinking to borders there, overall fair condition, 358 x 244mm, [Austria or Southern Germany], [14th century].

☆ The entrancing penwork decoration here is of a type common to a large number of contemporary Germanic monastic manuscripts, with the closest parallels to those connected to the Austrian-German border (see for example, the leaf from an antiphoner sold by Bloomsbury Auctions, 2 July 2019, lot 57, and perhaps also the cutting with an initial offered in the same rooms, 3 December 2019, lot 38).

£2,500 - 3,500

LARGE REMNANT OF THE PSALTER WITH PASSION SEQUENCES COPIED BY PIETRO URSULEO OF CAPUO, in Latin, illuminated manuscript on parchment, 30 leaves, remains of three gatherings and a number of bifolia and single leaves, bound tightly and with numerous repairs to gutters, hence uncollatable (but see below), single column of 19 lines of the fine and accomplished humanist hand of Pietro Ursuleo (described by M.R. James from the sister volume as 'an exquisite Roman hand': Western Manuscripts in the Library of Trinity College, Cambridge, 1902, III, no. 1374, p. 384), faded red rubrics, dark blue and liquid gold capitals, 32 illuminated initials enclosed within white vinework on blue, green and red grounds, last word of Matt. 52 at end of text erased, some stains and losses at edges (probably from water damage during ownership by Jarman, see below), edges repaired with more modern parchment and edges of one or two initials restored, a few leaves with ink faded or partly flaked away, one page overwritten to correct this, with edges of some letters stretching over repair parchment of missing borders (fol. 9r here), overall presentable condition, 171 by 26mm., blue cloth covered boards with green leather spine (bound for J.H.P. Pafford: see below), 'MS' and 'SAEC XV' in gilt on spine, 4to, [southern Italy (Naples)], [c.1460].

* Provenance:

1. Written by the scribe Pietro Ursuleo (d. 1483), bishop of Satarino and elevated on his deathbed to the archbishopric of Santa Severina, and perhaps illuminated by Matteo Felice or a member of his workshop, as one of two sister volumes (the other now Trinity College, Cambridge, MS 0.7.46) for a patron in Ravenna.

2. The parent volume was most probably then in the collection of John Boykett Jarman (d. 1864), and damaged by the flood that affected his manuscript collection (the parent manuscript was his sale in Sotheby's, 13 June 1864, lot 161).

3. By January 1912 it had passed to the London bookseller James Tregaskis (1850-1926), who offered it intact in his cat. 717 (8 January 1912), no. 485 (and again in cat. 720, perhaps March 1912, no. 571; and cat. 743, 1913, no. 510; at which point it contained 169 leaves), but when it went unsold began to remove single leaves for sale (see his cat. 777, 1916, no. 81, 4 leaves). Leaves from it are now widely dispersed, with lists in M. Manion, V.F. Vines and C. de Hamel., Medieval and Renaissance Manuscripts in New Zealand Collections, 1989, no. 89, Peter Kidd's blogpost of 2014 and the Fragmentarium website.

4. J.H.P. Pafford (1900-96), Goldsmith's Librarian of University College, London, and a prolific text editor and author, who recorded in correspondence with A.C. de la Mare in 1979 that he purchased these 30 leaves in two equal blocks, only a week or two apart in about 1962, from The Guildhall Bookshop of Twickenham and from 'a bookshop in the Bloomsbury area ... a newly opened shop'. Tregaskis' business was carried on by family members until 1939, and the parent volume seems to have passed to a member of the book trade by the late 1950s, who divided it up into short sections and dispersed these into the London trade. Manion, Vines and de Hamel note that two sections appeared on the market in the late 1950s, while 28 leaves appeared at Sotheby's, 11 July 1960, lot 153, and 22 leaves were Alan G. Thomas, cat. 14 (1964), no. 22. The Sotheby's and Thomas sections appear to have been divided and dispersed by the Folio Fine Art Society, and this group here may well be the last substantial remnant of this alluring codex to remain together. By descent from Pafford to the present owner.

Text: The leaves here contain: fols. 1-6: Psalms 6:4-14:1-4; fols. 7-8: Psalms 16:4-17: 24; fols. 9-10: Psalms 31:3-33:10; fols. 11-15: Psalms 33:11-34:27, 35:1-37:9; fols. 16-18: Psalms 38:4-41:7; fol. 19: Psalms 72:9-73:3; fols. 20-21: Psalms 106:19-108:8; fol. 22: Psalms 110:9-113: 2; fol. 23: Psalms 143:14-144:19; fol. 24: Psalms 148:9-150, followed by part of the Canticle (the opening of the Song of Isaiah, here 12:1) and Is. 12:2-end, followed by Is. 38:9-18 on fol. 25; fol. 26: Canticles (the Prayer of Habakkuk, here 3:11-end, followed by the Song of Moses, here Deut. 32:1-7, with Deut. 32:7-38 continuing on fols 27-28; fol. 29: Te Deum (ending), Gloria (opening); and fol. 30: Matt. 27:52-end, with last word erased.

SUBSTANTIAL FRAGMENT OF A BOOK OF HOURS, PERHAPS FOR FRANCISCAN USE, IN LATIN AND FRENCH, illuminated manuscript on vellum, 53 leaves only, wanting leaves throughout (but apparently in present state in late 19th century), single column of 17 lines of a good late gothic bookhand, capitals touched in yellow, rubrics in red, line-fillers in blue and burgundy heightened with white penwork and drops of liquid gold, one- and 2line initials in gold on similarly coloured grounds, some of these with single-line foliage sprays in adjacent borders terminating in coloured leaves, flowerbuds and gold bezants, larger initials in same colours, enclosing scrolling foliage on gold grounds, leaves with large initials with decorated floral borders on three sides, small spots, stains and small smudges, some leaves slightly cockled in places, else good condition, 161 x 121mm., bound in 19th-century brown calf, blind-tooled with floral sprays at corners and double fillet, floral tools on spine with gilt title: "MISSAL", rubbed, corners bumped and joints with small splits, marbled endleaves, small 4to, North Eastern France or French Flanders, [c.1460].

A This is the first appearance of this volume on the market in nearly a century and a half. This volume opens with Vespers and Compline from the Hours of the Virgin, with parts of the Seven Penitential Psalms and a Litany, Hours of the Holy Spirit and Office of the Dead following. It ends with the Doulce dame de misericorde prayers in French, ending abruptly in the fifteenth and last prayer.

Provenance: (1) Written and illuminated for a patron in north-eastern France or French Flanders: the litany includes SS. Audoin and Mellonius (4th- and 7th-century bishops of Rouen), as well as SS. Francis and Anthony of Padua, an early Franciscan preacher; (2) Charles H.L. Woodd (1821-93) of Rosslyn House in Hampstead, wine merchant, evangelical and close friend of John Ruskin: his ex libris on front endleaf dated November 1874; and by descent to present owner.

SAGITTARIUS AND A MEDIEVAL TOWN SCENE WITH PEAT BARGES ON A CANAL AS MERCHANTS MEET AND TALK AND ANOTHER MAN CUTS WOOD, A MINIATURE IN TWO COMPARTMENTS ON A CUTTING FROM A MANUSCRIPT OF SAINTS' LIVES, IN LATIN, ON VEILUM, cutting with a miniature composed of two rectangular compartments, the upper with the zodiac sign of Sagittarius as a white centaur, bow drawn, all on a russet-brown ground, the lower with a scene with canals subdividing units of land on which houses and a castle stand, as merchants sit on a wall in the foreground and discuss matters, while another man splits wood with an axe, as a bargeman poles two linked barges carrying stacks of peat down the main waterway, these enclosed and separated from each other by a thin gold frame, the reverse with 16 lines from a single column of text in an angular Germanic hand (from an otherwise untraced life of St. Plectrudis of Cologne), with capitals touched in red, trimmed to edges of miniature, some light scratches to miniatures and small chips to paint in places, marks on everse from former mountings, one label with old collection no. "389" or "382" (the last number partly torn away), overall good condition, 92 x 94mm., Netherlands or Western Germany [perhaps Cologne], 1460-70.

This TINY AND EXQUISITE MINIATURE AND ITS SISTER CUTTING WITH PISCES ABOVE BATTLING KNIGHTS ARE PERHAPS ALL THAT SURVIVE OF A STRANGE AND FASCINATING PARENT MANUSCRIPT. The presence of part of the life of St. Plectrudis of Cologne, a Merovingian noblewoman whose relics were kept in her foundation of St. Maria im Kapitol there, on the reverse of this cutting provides a probable origin point, and when its sister cutting last came to market (as part of the collection of Stanley J. Seegar, sold at Sotheby's, 30 October 2018, lot 157, for £20,000; and formerly in the collection of Eric Korner, sold at Sotheby's, 19 June 1990, lot 27, for £3850) it was identified by Professor James Marrow, as the work of the Master of Evert van Soudenbalch, a Dutch miniaturist with roots in Cologne who was active c. 1460-70, or just possibly his close collaborator, the Master of Gijsbrecht van Bredrerode. Close links can be drawn to the Bible of Evert van Soudenbalch in Vienna (ÖNB Cod. 2771-72), and the artist's work in the manuscript of De natuurkunde van het geheelalin (now Wolfenbüttel, HAB Cod. Guelph. 18.2. Aug. 4°), with zodiac signs near-identical to those of the present cutting and its sister cutting. The miniatures of the parent manuscript appear to have been zodiac signs and occupations of the months, but differing from the more usual scenes for the latter, perhaps to reflect specific wishes and concerns of the manuscript's original commissioner. If the lower scene here does show the movement of peat in barges, then this is an extremely early depiction of these non-maritime vessels in a commercial act that underpinned much of the trade in the Low Countries and adjacent Rhineland throughout the Middle Ages.

Provenance: (1) Perhaps from a manuscript written for a Cistercian or Carthusian house, to judge by the punctus flexus punctuation, perhaps in Cologne. (2) Unidentified 19th- or early 20th-century collection, with printed labels of that date on the reverse (with similar labels on the sister cutting, and two other early German miniatures in the Korner sale at Sotheby's: lots 10-11; all those sharing a common provenance in W.H. Robinson Ltd of 16 Pall Mall, and this cutting perhaps also passing through their hands).

A skeleton with a banderole, in an initial on a leaf from an OPULENTLY ILLUMINATED BOOK OF HOURS, IN LATIN, MANUSCRIPT ON vellum, single leaf, with a large historiated initial 'D' (opening "Dilexi quoniam exaudi ...", the reading for Vespers in the Office of the Dead) in blue, pink and green acanthus leaves heightened with white penwork, enclosing a detailed skeleton clutching a banderole, with inscription: "Memento homo quia cinis es et", all on burnished gold ground, the remaining letters of the initial word in gold or blue capitals, with full border of densely packed single-line foliage, sprays of red and blue flowerbuds and numerous gold leaves and bezants, with an architectural winged face in border at top beneath a wreath hanging from the frame above by two red ties, a realistic mallard in outer border and putto spearing a green dragon in the bas-de-page, the text and border decoration within thin gold frames (the inner frame enclosing angular geometric designs in blue), one-line initials in gold or blue with contrasting penwork, red rubrics, single column of 13 lines of a rounded Italian late gothic hand, margins trimmed at extremities (but without losses to borders, small spots, else in outstanding and fresh condition, 125 x 94mm., [Italy (Naples)], [c.1470-80].

★ THE PARENT VOLUME OF THIS LEAF WAS MOST PROBABLY PRODUCED WITHIN THE NEAPOLITAN COURT, BY THE ARTIST CRISTOFORO MAJORANA (FL. C. 1480-94). The illumination here is recognisable as by the same hand as that of the majority of the illumination in a Book of Hours produced within Naples in 1477 for Joachinus Guasconus of Florence (now British Library, Yates Thompson MS. 6: see online catalogue and reproductions) and the frontispiece of a copy of the works of Ausonius made c. 1475-85 for Alfonso of Aragon, later king of Naples, and passing from him to the Neapolitan Royal Library, and eventually to Major J.R. Abbey (J.J.G. Alexander and A.C de la Mare, The Italian Manuscripts in the Library of Major J.R. Abbey, 1969, no. 28, pl. xxxiv). They share distinctive and identical two-colour flowerbuds with long pointed stamens covered in white dots, detailed and naturalistic portraits of birds and fantastical creatures, and putti with delicate shading used to pick out their round cheeks (and in the case of the Yates Thompson manuscript the same slitted eyes as here), all on a ground of dense gold-strewn foliage. Moreover, the angular geometric patterns within the inner gold frame here are echoed by the more prominent frames of both the Ausonius and Yates Thompson manuscripts. J.J.G. Alexander drew together the known examples of the artist's work in 1969 (but without the present leaf, or any note of its lost parent volume), and overturned the earlier attribution to Cola Rapicano, the Neapolitan court artist who trained Cristoforo Majorana in his workshop.

🞄 Snowdon. "Snowden is the highest of this long range of mountains, and has the most awfull and tremendous aspect, not only from its vast height, but also from the rudeness of its form, its chasms, and projections. Two hours and a half in ascending, and our guide told us we were nimble; nothing however can exceed the difficulty and fatigue, we were greatly incommoded too by the wind... We presently... in a hollow in the mountain sheltered from the wind. Here we rested to admire these wonderful exhibitions of nature. It was a sea of mountains." - Cust.

Cust is thoroughly imbued with Gilpin's in search of the picturesque. A tour starting from London, passing Hampstead Hill, the chaise continues through the night past Oxford, then on to Stratford, Birmingham and Shrewsbury where the tour begins. They visit Llangollen, Conwy, Penmaenmawr, Bangor, Anglesy ["Angleshire"], Caernarfon, Snowdon, Llanberis, Bangor, Vale of Clwyd etc.

Georgian Play.- Poole (John, playwright and writer, 1785/6-1872) PAUL PRY, manuscript prompt book, titles and 118pp., title loose, central folds, browned, morocco-backed boards, worn, covers detached, spine defective, 8vo, 1826.

* PROMPT BOOK FOR ONE OF THE MOST POPULAR PLAYS OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

Prompt book made by R.J. Collier, prompter of the Theatre Royal, Hull, in 1826, for the production of Paul Pry which had first been performed at the Theatre Royal, Haymarket, on 13th September 1825. Cast list as recorded here is that of the original London production, including: John Liston (c. 1776-1846), actor; played Paul Pry ("Paul Pry, with his catchphrase 'I hope I don't intrude', was a unique creation, dressed in baggy striped trousers tucked into hessian boots, tail coat, and top hat, and accompanied always by an umbrella" - ODNB); and Lucia Vestris [née Bartolozzi], (1797-1856), actress and singer ("a fashionable star... [Vestris] even acquired a signature tune when she introduced the song 'Cherry Ripe' into John Poole's Paul Pry at the Haymarket in 1825" - ODNB).

"[John] Liston played the title role in Paul Pry, which opened at the Haymarket on 13 September 1825. 'Go where you would 40 years ago', noted The Times on 31 August 1866, 'you could not, by any means, avoid Paul Pry.' It was, perhaps, the most popular single piece on the London stage since The Beggar's Opera in 1728." - ODNB.

♣ General Paolo Crescenzo Martino Avitabile, peasant's son born in Agerola, in the province of Salerno near Amalfi (in southern Italy), he served in the Neapolitan militia during the Napoleonic wars. After Waterloo he drifted east like many other adventurous soldiers. In 1820 he joined the army of the Shah of Persia, attaining the rank of colonel and receiving several decorations before returning to Italy in 1824. He joined the army of Maharaja Ranjit Singh of the Punjab in 1827, and later also received various civilian appointments. In 1829 he was made administrator of Wazirabad and in 1837 he succeeded Hari Singh Nalwa as governor of Peshawar. He remained in the Punjab until the assassination of Maharaja Sher Singh in 1843, after which he retired to Italy, where his rank as a general was confirmed and he was knighted.

Lawrence (Thomas Edward, intelligence officer and author, [known as Lawrence of Arabia], 1888-1935) AUTOGRAPH LETTER SIGNED "TE SHAW" TO FLIGHT SERGEANT A.E. CLARKE, 2pp. & envelope, 4to, 119 Clarence Road, East Cowes, Isle of Wight, n.d. [March 1929], on a wide variety of topics, including power-boat problems, "I am sorry the boat has been a problem in storage. As there is no petrol in her, perhaps Mr. Maygottling would take her into the stores side of No. 2 shed... Yesterday I saw Major Colin Cooper, her proper owner... and he will probably take her back... There is some idea of handing her over to Scott Paine for a new racing engine, and having a crack at her class record! I am glad 201 + 203 are still doing their stuff, & hope the fitters are near the end of their work on 213. It has been a long job - three engines, of course! Please tell Corpl. Bradbury that 27, the first twin pinnace, should go into the water on Monday next for propeller trials", and his admiration for Henry Williamson's Tarka the Otter, "Tarka is an extraordinary book: too much worked over, but magnificent", folds (2 pieces).

★ LAWRENCE'S ADMIRATION FOR HENRY WILLIAMSON'S "TARKA THE OTTER". In 1928 he wrote a long letter to Edward Garnett almost entirely on the book. It was to Williamson that he sent his final message before his fatal motor cycle accident, inviting him to lunch on the following Tuesday.

Troy.- Early English provenance.- Columna (Guido de) HISTORIA DESTRUCTIONIS TROIAE, collation: [a-i¹⁰ k⁸ l¹⁰ m-o⁸], [132] ff., the first and last blank, 34 lines (variable), Gothic type, opening initial in red and blue, the others in red, chapter headings, paragraph-marks and foliation in red, occasional early ink marginalia and notes in different hands (see note below), initial blank detaching, f.33 small section of upper corner torn away, affecting one number of supplied foliation, ff. 51 & 61 tear to lower inner corner, mostly marginal, but on f.51 just touching 1 letter recto and verso (without loss), f.94 short marginal tear at foot, a few ff. working loose, some spotting and staining, remains of early 17th century vellum document used in binding (mentioning Southwark), 17th century English calf over pasteboards, spine in compartments, covers with triple blind-ruled borders, head of spine and corners worn, rubbed and scuffed, housed in a modern dark brown morocco-backed cloth drop-back box, gilt, folio (284 x 196mm.), [The Netherlands,?Utrecht], [Printer of Alexander Magnus, ?Gerardus de Leempt], [c.1477-1479].

A very good wide-margined copy of the editio princeps of this history of Troy by the 13th century Sicilian judge Guido de Columna. Here with evidence of early English readership. Only two other copies (one of this edition) are recorded as being in England before 1557. Recorded holdings show no copies in an Italian institution, and locate only one in the United States (Walters, Baltimore). Furthermore, we can trace no other copy at auction.

Around 1271 Matteo della Porta, the Archbishop of Salerno had suggested to the author that he write a work in Latin on the fall of Troy. The first book was written within the lifetime of the archbishop, but without his encouragement the final 34 books were not written until 1287, when all were completed within three months. The work is based on the mid-twelfth century Roman de Troie of Benoît de Saint-Maure. The first book goes back to Peleus, father of Achilles, and the search for the Golden Fleece, while the final book deals with the death of Ulysses. It enjoyed huge success in its time

It is one of only four books that are attributed to the so-called 'Printer of the Historia ALEXANDRI MAGNI'. It has been suggested that the printer was in fact Gerardus de Leempt. The suggested timeframe of printing comes from the watermarks present, which are found in books printed 1477-1479 (see Watermarks in Incunabula printed in the Low Countries, available through the ISTC entry). It is feasible that the 'historia troiana' written on the first and final blank in red crayon was done so at the atelier of the printer.

Provenance: 'Wyllyam Algar' and 'Tho secund[?i]' (?Thomas Twine) (16th century ink inscriptions to recto of initial blank); 'Nulla sors longa, dolor est voluptas / invicem cedunt; brevior voluptas', a quotation from Seneca's Thyestes, II.596-597 (ink inscription of c.1600 to recto of front blank); f.131 ink accounting notes in an English 16th century hand and a few lines from book III of Chaucer's Book of Fame, II. 1564-1572; The Macclesfield copy (engraved North Library armorial bookplate with press mark 116. F. 12, and armorial blind-stamp to upper margin of first 3 ff.).

* The first edition of Aldus's monumental compilation of astrological and astronomical texts with superb woodcuts, including four by the 'Poliphilo Master'. It is one of the few works by Aldus to include illustrations. The work includes the first edition in the original Greek of Aratus's Phaenomena, as well as Maternus's de Nativitatibus libri viii and Marcus Manilius's Astronomicon. The final section contains the editio princeps of pseudo-Proclan's Sphaera, with excerpta from the Elementa astronomiae of Geminos of Rhodes, translated by the Oxford humanist Thomas Linacre.

* An outstanding association copy. The works of one of the greats of Greek classical drama in Aristophanes, owned by one of the leading writers of neoclassical drama in 17th century France in Jean Racine (1639-1699). The latter is best known for his plays Phèdre and Andromaque, both drawn from Greek mythology. According to Brunet (452) the extensive annotations to Plutus, a large part of The Clouds, and a few leaves of The Assemblywomen are in the hand Jean-Baptiste Racine (1678-1747), the eldest son of the great playwright.

Provenance: Jean-Baptiste Racine (small ink signature to general title); Antoine-Augustin Renouard (red book label and entry from his sale catalogue of 1854 [lot 1048] relating to this volume to verso of first front free endpaper); Michel Floréal Chasles (1793-1880), French mathematician and victim of French letter and document forger Denis Vrain-Lucas (bookplate to front pastedown, sold 1881). See p.190: IV of Paul Bonnefon's 'La Bibliothèque du Racine' in Revue d'Histoire littéraire de la France, 5th year, number 2, pp.169-219, 1898.

Pillone binding.- Tomai (Tommaso) HISTORIA DI RAVENNA, collation: t^4 , $2t^2$, $A-Z^4$, $Aa-Dd^4$, Roman and italic type, woodcut arms of Pope Gregory XIII on title, woodcut decorated initials, lightly stained and spotted, more prominently in quires M and T, pale water-stain in blank outer margin of first leaves, original limp vellum, covers decorated with ink drawings by Cesare Vecellio, upper cover depicting the church of Santa Maria della Rotonda in Ravenna, lower cover part of the city ramparts, traces of two pairs of ties, smooth spine decorated in ink with stylised acanthus leaves, painted edges, fore-edge with a view of the city, and the inscription 'ravena', 4to (text block 196 x 127mm; binding 200 x 130 mm), Ravenna, Francesco Tebaldini, 1580.

A SPLENDID COPY OF THE SECOND EDITION OF THIS RARE WORK ON THE HISTORY OF RAVENNA, OWNED BY THE WELL-KNOWN BIBLIOPHILE ODORICO PILLONE (1503-1593), OF BELLUNO. In 1580 Pillone famously commissioned the painter Cesare Vecellio (1521-1601) to decorate, with drawings or painted fore-edges, the bindings of 172 volumes preserved in his Villa Casteldardo in the Dolomites, in which he had established his Studio. Vecellio, was a cousin and pupil of Titian, and worked in his atelier until his death. He decorated the fore-edges of the majority of Pillone's library, depicting characters and landscapes relating to the subject of each book. He is also known as the author of Habiti antichi et moderni, the well-known illustrated history of clothing, in which he mentions the library and other collections of the Pillone family, as well as the generous hospitality in their Villa.

The present example represents one of only 21 volumes that Vecellio adorned with drawings on the covers, and one of the very few with both decorated vellum covers and painted fore-edges.

In 1874, a Pillone descendant sold the entire collection to the English bibliophile Thomas Brooke for 20,000 lire. After the latter's death, Humphrey Brooke, the heir of the collection, entrusted the sale to Alan Keen, who compiled a catalogue of its contents (The Venetian Library Collected at the Close of the Sixteenth Century by Doctor Odorico Pillone and the Sides and Edges Painted by Cesare Vecellio, London 1951). The collection was then purchased in 1957 by the French bookseller Pierre Berès, who immediately put it on sale, publishing a catalogue with the help of Italian art historian Lionello Venturi. The collection, united until then, was thus dispersed.

Provenance: Odorico Pillone (1503-1593); Sir Thomas Brooke of Armitage Bridge House, Huddersfield (1830-1908; ex-libris on the front pastedown; see A Catalogue of the Manuscripts and Printed Books Collected by Thomas Brooke, F.S.A. Vol. ii. M-Z, London 1891, no. 158, "Tomai, Tommaso. Historia di Ravenna. In Ravenna, 1580. 4to. v."); from Humprey Brooke to Pierre Berès (P. Berès, Un group de livres Pillone. Catalogue no. 67, Paris 1957, no. 158; label on the front pastedown 'Livre no. 158 de la Bibliothèque Pillone Pierre Berès'); Sotheby's London, 25 May 2000, lot 97.

Literature: P. Berès, Bibliothèque Pillone, Paris, 1957, no. 158; T. Conte (ed.), Cesare Vecellio, 1521 c.-1601, Belluno 2001.

Benjamin of Tudela. ITINERARIUM BENJAMINIS, LATINE REDDITUM, wwoodcut printer's device to title, front endpaper detached and rubbed where pulled away from pastedown, later vellum, spine gilt, loose in binding, [Blackmer 120; Willems 379], 16mo, Leiden, [Bonaventura & Abraham] Elzevier, 1633.

* Benjamin of Tudela, (born 12th century, Navarre), a rabbi who was the first known European traveller to approach the frontiers of China and whose account of his journey, Massa'ot (The Itinerary of Benjamin of Tudela, 1907), illuminates the situation of Jews in Europe and Asia in the 12th century. Motivated by commercial interests as well as a desire to learn of the conditions of Jews, he spent about 13 years journeying through Italy, Greece, Palestine, Persia, and the western borders of China, returning by way of Egypt and Sicily (1159-73). This is the Latin translation of The Travels of Benjamin (Masa'ot Binyamin in Hebrew) written when he originally returned from his travels in 1178.

Playing cards.- Finé de Brianville (Claude Oronce) JEU D'ARMOIRIES DES SOUVERAINS ET ESTATS D'EUROPE, second edition, additional engraved title, double-page plate, some water-staining and damp-mottling towards end, occasional light foxing, contemporary calf, rebacked, rubbed, 12mo, Lyon, Chez Benoist Coral, 1660; with the accompanying 52 engraved plates of playing cards on 6 sheets, separately mounted, framed and glazed, lightly foxed and browned and with some paper repairs, mostly to margins, each sheet 178 x 280mm., the whole frame 775 x 790mm., (2)

* RARE SUITE OF CARDS IN THEIR ORIGINAL, UNCUT SHEETS. When de Brianville originally produced these cards in 1659, they had kings, queens, knaves and aces. Apparently this caused outrage amongst some princes and nobles, who felt that their royal blood had been snubbed. The copper plates were seized by the City Council, who only returned them to de Brianville when he agreed to replace the knaves and aces with princes and chevaliers, as here. The suits are arranged thus: hearts for France, clubs for Italy, spades for Northern Europe, diamonds for Spain.

Engels (Friedrich) Der Ursprung der Familie, des Privateigenthums UND DES STAATS, FIRST EDITION, ink ownership inscription to title, booklabel to pastedown, p.13 loose, cracking to gutter at p.iv & 142, original cloth, spine a little sunned, 8vo, Hottingen-Zurich, Schweizerischen Genossenschaftsbuchdruckerei, 1884.

& First edition of Engels' treatise on the disintegration of the primitive community, the emergence of a class society based on private property, and the disintegration of the state towards a classless society; known in English as, The Origin of the Family, Private Property and the State. Written in just two months, a decade after it became the first of Engels' works to be legally published in Russia, later being described by Lenin as one of the fundamental works of modern socialism.

Marx (Karl) KAPITAL, FIRST SERBIAN EDITION, translated by Mosa Pijade, ink name and stamp to first leaf, original purple printed wrappers, a little sunned, ink stamp and inscription to upper cover, spine faded and chipped with loss to top inch, uncut, 8vo, Belgrade, Izdavacka Knjizarnica Gece Kona, 1924.

🞄 The translator Mosa Pijade, a Serbian Sephardic Jew, was imprisoned in 1925 for 'revolutionary activities'. In prison he met Josip Broz-Tito and Pijade later became Tito's right-hand man, one of the leaders of the Partisans during WWII and, after the war, President of the Yugoslavian Parliament from 1954-55.

In 1948 he convinced Tito to allow the Yugoslav Jews to emigrate to Israel. This book was published by Geca Kon (Géza Kohn), a Hungarian born Jew, who owned the biggest publishing house in Yugoslavia, operating from 1901 until the German occupation in 1941. After the Germans marched into Belgrade, Kon was arrested and shot. Most of his family, who were also active in the business, were taken to a concentration camp in Vojvodina and shot that same year.

[Beyle (Marie-Henri)], "Stendhal". LA CHARTREUSE DE PARME, 2 vol., FIRST EDITION, FIRST ISSUE, half-titles with ink armorial stamp showing through to verso, final leaf of vol.2 (cancel leaf with advertisement) lacking as often, foxing, contemporary brown patterned and ribbed cloth, spines gilt, a little rubbed, vol.1 binding detached, [Carteret Romantique II, 358; Clouzot 151; Lhermitte 567; Vicaire I, 458], 8vo, Paris, Ambroise Dupont, 1839.

♣ First edition of the eighth novel by the celebrated French writer Stendhal, published anonymously but mentioned on titles as the author of Le Rouge et Noir, which appeared in 1830-31. La Chartreuse de Parme was written in only fifty-six days, between 4th November and 26th December, 1838. It was inspired by both Stendhal's desire to write a Napoleonic novel centred on the Battle of Waterloo, and his interest in the life of Alexander Farnese (who would later become Pope Paul III), which parallels that of Fabrice del Dongo, the novel's main character.

The present copy, printed on papier velin and without the indication 'Deuxième édition' on the title-page, represents a rare example from the first issue of this edition.

The novel was enthusiastically received by Stendhal's contemporaries. Of particular note is the opinion expressed by Honoré de Balzac in a letter written to Stendhal on 6 April 1839, "Il ne faut jamais retarder de faire plaisir à ceux qui nous ont donné du plaisir. La chartreuse est un grand et beau Livre, je vous le dis sans flatterie, sans envie, car je serai incapable de le faire [...]".

Firmin Didot.- PONTIFICALIS, trial sheets for an unpublished edition, 72 ff., with the first 24 gatherings repeated three times, PRINTED ON VELLUM in red and black, text in two columns with engraved tendril borders, six-line initial capitals, steel engravings by Jules Jean Marie Joseph Huyot, some spotting, later cloth, hinge broken, extremities bumped, joints splitting and fraying, folio, Paris, [c.1870].

♣ It appears this work - a late collaboration between Ambroise Firmin Didot and Huyot - was never published and that this copy may have been a sample drawn up of trial sheets in order to give prospective buyers a sense for the size and weight of the finished work.

Tolstoy (Count Lev Nikolayevich "Leo") NARODNYE RAZSKAZY, FIRST EDITION, title reinforced at inner margin and with bookshop ink stamp at foot, pp.5/6 holed from paper flaw, slightly affecting text, a couple of small marginal nicks, one leaf with pagination shaved, foxing, modern marbled boards, 8vo, Prague, Eduard Valecka, 1888.

* Rare. We can find no copy having been sold at auction. The planned publication of this book by a Russian mediator or "Posrednik" in 1887 was forbidden by imperial censorship. So this first edition was issued in Prague by Eduard Valecka, a publisher and translator, who was in contact with major Russian authors like Tolsoy, Tchaikovsky etc.

Lenin (Vladimir llyich) MATERIALIZM I EMPIRIOKRITISIZM, FIRST EDITION, some ink underlining and marginalia, Moscow, Zveno, 1909; BOUND WITH Akselrod (L[yubov] "Orthodox") Filosofskie ocerki, some ink annotations by a student, St Petersburg, Druzhinina and Maximova, 1906, together 2 works in 1, later cloth with leather spine label, 8vo

A Rare first edition of Lenin's seminal work of dialectical materialism, which was a set text for students of higher education in the Soviet Union as part of the Marxist-Leninist Philosophy curriculum. No copy at auction seemingly since 1982. The second work is scarce in the west and interestingly is by a woman philosopher and published by women.

Secret Speech denouncing Stalin.- Khrushchev (Nikita Sergeyevich) O KULCIE JEDNOSTKI I JEGO NASTEPSTWACH, first edition, both issues, original printed wrappers, first issue with ink stamp ???947 and (in red) 'Da zwrotu', with spine crudely repaired with cloth tape, second issue with ink stamp 13770 on upper cover, 8vo, Warsaw, Marzec, 1956.

& Very rare and important copies of both issues of the first edition of Khrushchev's speech, given to a closed session of Communist Party delegates on 25 February 1956, in which he openly denounced the deceased dictator Joseph Stalin (who died in March 1953). "Khrushchev recalled Lenin's Testament, a long-suppressed document in which Vladimir Lenin had warned that Stalin was likely to abuse his power, and then he cited numerous instances of such excesses" (Encyclopaedia Britannica Online). This Polish translation of the speech was the only version that circulated during the Cold War, the official Russian text being unknown until its publication in 1989. The CIA counterfeit edition, with false imprint Moscow 1959, was in fact a translation into Russian from the present Polish text, which was smuggled out of Moscow and leaked, via Israel, to the USA. The work appeared in two issues - both here present - with the various interjections and ovations (eg pp. 30 and 31 "(poruszenie na sali)" [movement in the hall]) included; and without the interjections but with a second part of 'Unpublished material' including Lenin's testament and his 'On the National Question' and Stalin's notes.

A REMARKABLE PAIR OF MILESTONES IN THE HISTORY OF ARCHITECTURE.

THE FIRST MENTIONED IS THE FIRST BOOK ON ARCHITECTURE TO BE PUBLISHED IN ENGLAND AS WELL AS THE FIRST TO BE PUBLISHED ON THE SUBJECT IN ENGLISH. The word architecture first appeared in print on the title and other fundamental architectural terms such as architrave and entablature first make their way into the English language in these pages. While Shute was not an architect of particular note, his contribution to the appreciation of architecture in the English-speaking world was immense. Although this example is defective it is nevertheless THE ONLY TIME WE HAVE BEEN ABLE TO TRACE A COPY APPEARING AT AUCTION, PLACZEK AND GIRAL IN AVERY'S CHOICE STATE THAT ONLY SEVEN COPIES OF THIS WORK ARE KNOWN (likely not including this copy, no copy in the BL).

The second mentioned is the first collected edition of the Quattro Libri dell'Architettura by the Paduan theorist and practising architect Andrea di Pietro della Gondola, universally known as Andrea Palladio, after the name given to him by his patron and renowned humanist Giangiorgio Trissino. Palladio was primarily active as an architect in Venice, Vicenza, and along the Brenta river, where he built magnificent villas for wealthy members of the Venetian patriciate. This authoritative and influential treatise celebrates the purity and simplicity of classical architecture, drawing its inspiration from Roman sources, especially Vitruvius, and Italian Renaissance architects, above all Leon Battista Alberti. The work is divided into four parts or libri, devoted to orders and elementary problems, domestic buildings, public buildings, and town planning and temples. The treatise was reprinted and translated many times over the following centuries.

Provenance: James Lees-Milne (1908-1997) English writer and expert on country houses (bookplate); note in Lees-Milne's hand: "This edition of Palladio's Quattro Libri was given by me to John Beresford Fowler and returned to me after his death, November 1977. I gave it to my dear friend John Anthony Kenworthy-Browne 1993".

Lees-Milne (James Henry, architectural historian and conservationist, 1908-97) COUNTRY HOUSE BOOK, 3 vol., autograph manuscript entries signed, c. 400pp., some crossings out, some edges reinforced with tape, a few small tears to edges, some browning, original boards, Alderley Grange, Wootton-under-Edge, Gloucestershire (Lees-Milne's home 1961-1975), Ige. oblong 4to, 1928-1975.

THE INCOMPARABLE HISTORIAN OF THE COUNTRY HOUSE IN THE 20TH CENTURY.

Lees-Milne "almost single-handedly saved many of England's finest buildings and his industry was remarkable". - Oxford DNB.

The manuscripts list the house, owners, period, illustrations, references (Pevsner, Colvin etc.) and notes on architectural features. Amongst those listed are some which are still in the hands of their historical owners, others are now in the care of The National Trust such as Ham House, Charlecote, Packwood, Mottisfont, The Vyne, Canons Ashby etc. Others were sold such as Sutton Park (Getty and other owners), Stoneleigh Abbey (Royal Agricultural Society), Wotton House (hotel) etc.

Provenance: Typed Letter signed from Thrings & Long solicitors recording the gift in the will of Lees-Milne to J A Kenworthy-Browne, 1998. £6,000 - 8,000

Ind now translated out of Italian into English by Barth, Young, of the middle Temple, Gent. Imprinted at London by Thomas Eaft. 1586.

Guazzo (Stefano) THE CIVILE CONVERSATION, second English edition, translated by George Pettie and Bartholomew Young, largely printed in black letter, title within typographic border, colophon leaf with woodcut coat-of-arms and typographic decorations, other woodcut decorations and initials, title and colophon laid down, the latter with a couple of small holes but not affecting text, lacking initial leaf (blank except for signature 'A), small tear to A6, leaves in sig. U misbound, some water-staining, particularly at beginning and end, L8 repaired tear, 19th century half calf over marbled boards, rubbed, head of spine nicked, spine label chipped, [STC 12423; Pforzheimer 796], 4to, by Thomas East, 1586.

♣ Of the first English edition, published in 1581, Pforzheimer says "Guazzo's book was the middle-class counterpart of Castiglione's and, according to Florio, was much read by Englishmen in the original Italian. Sir Edward Sullivan has made an interesting study of Shakespeare's use of this book, listing many parallel passages and demonstrating its usefulness to Shakespeare for supplying details of Italian manners for some of his plays." This edition has two settings, most notably in quires A and N. This copy has A5 recto line 3 ending "lightnes" and N1 line 1 "swoord".

Agriculture.- Mascall (Leonard) THE FIRST BOOKE OF CATTELL, 3 parts in 1, FIRST EDITION, largely printed in black letter, woodcut device to first title, titles of second and third parts within woodcut architectural borders, woodcut initials and head-pieces, lacks initial blank and 2ff. following 2D5 (?cancels), pagination erratic but seemingly otherwise complete, the odd spot but a very good, clean copy overall, contemporary calf, sympathetically rebacked, [STC 17580; Fussell I, p.9 for 1596 ed.], small 4to, by John Wolfe, 1587.

☆ The rare first edition, ESTC cites only the BL copy in UK (curiously, not this copy) and 3 in America (Folger, Huntington and Michigan State). Fussell calls the work "important, but, in common with most of the writers of his and the succeeding century, Mascall had no hesitation in borrowing from earlier writers, and I doubt if he ever challenged their authority."

Pilgrim Press.- Dod (John) A PLAINE AND FAMILIAR EXPOSITION OF THE TENNE COMMANDEMENTS. WITH A METHODICALL SHORT CATECHISME, CONTAINING BRIEFLY ALL THE PRINCIPALL GROUNDS OF CHRISTIAN RELIGION, title and woodcut ornament within woodcut typographic border (small tear/hole to the typographic border on the title-page), woodcut heads-pieces and decorative initials, upper corner of last f. repaired, lower margin of A3&4 stained, last 2 ff. stained, occasional spotting, recased in old vellum, small 4to, [Leiden], [William Brewster], 1617.

A THE ORIGINS OF THE PILGRIM PRESS. Rare first edition of one of the most influential primers of Puritan religious beliefs, printed by William Brewster, who three years later would lead a band of English religious 'separatists' to America on the Mayflower. Published during Brewster's Dutch exile, the work is important in the history of the Pilgrims prior to their emigration to America. Persecuted for their religious beliefs in England, the community took refuge at Leiden, where Brewster began printing books with Thomas Brewer in a workshop in Kosteeg in 1617. Among their first productions were English and Dutch editions of Dod and Cleaver's Exposition of the tenne commandements, a cornerstone of Puritan piety, which had first been printed in London in 1603. At the behest of the English government the press was disbanded and the type conviscated in 1619, just as the community was preparing to depart for America. Brewster was forced into hiding before joining the rest of the group aboard the Mayflower in 1620. They arrived at Plymouth in November, 1620. Brewster assumed the role of spiritual leader and acted as preacher for the colony until his death in 1644.

Copies of this work were taken to America by the Pilgrims, and THE BOOK WAS THEREFORE AMONG THE FIRST ONES TO ARRIVE IN THE NEW WORLD. William Brewster himself owned three copies (noted in Harris & Jones), and according to Briggs other copies are listed in the inventories of Samuel Fuller (the Pilgrims' physician and Deacon of the Plymouth church), Godbert Godbertson and Governor William Bradford.

The work is exceedingly rare at auction. Aside from this copy only we can trace only a Dutch translation, sold 22nd March, 1921 for $280.

Shakespeare (William) THE LIFE OF KING HENRY THE FIFT [&] THE FIRST [SECOND] PART OF KING HENRY THE SIXT, from the Second Folio, together in 1 vol., pp.69-95 (misnumbered '59), 96-119, and 120-146 respectively, double column, woodcut head- & tail-pieces and initials, trimmed at head, a few times shaving upper ruled border, 14 with small portion torn away at foot, expertly repaired with later paper, affecting only ruled border recto but with loss to a few words verso, some light spotting and staining, modern calf-backed marbled boards, spine titled in gilt, overall a crisp tight copy, folio, [Printed by Thomas Cotes], [1632].

♣ Three plays bound together - Henry the Fifth includes one of Shakespeare's most famous and oft-repeated lines (Act 2, scene 1) "Once more unto the Breach, Deare friends, once more; Or close the Wall up with our English dead" and the King's final rallying "Cry, God for Harry, England, and S. George." Henry the Sixth is thought to be Shakespeare's first historical play.

£10,000 - 15,000

Shakespeare (William) THE THIRD PART OF KING HENRY THE SIXT, from the second folio, pp.147-172, double column, woodcut head- & tailpiece and initial, some light spotting and staining but overall a crisp copy, modern calf-backed marbled boards, spine gilt, folio, [Printed by Thomas Coates], [1632].

☆ The culmination of the Henry VI trilogy. It boasts the most battle scenes of any Shakespearean play, as well as one of the longest soliloquys, in which Richard Plantagenet reveals his ambition for the throne.

Qu'ran, English.- THE ALCORAN OF MAHOMET, FIRST OCTAVO EDITION OF THE FIRST ENGLISH LANGUAGE VERSION, corner of A4 defective but not affecting text, some light foxing and toning, no signature O (as issued), contemporary calf, worn, upper cover detached, [Wing K747A; ESTC R200452], 8vo, 1649.

 \clubsuit "A needful caveat or admonition" (caption title on p. 406) is by Alexander Ross.

Provenance: P. Ward (early ink name to title); J.W. Wyncole (ink inscription dated 1862 to front free endpaper).

First English Poetess.- Philips (Katherine) POEMS BY THE MOST DESERVEDLY ADMIRED MRS KATHERINE PHILIPS THE MATCHLESS ORINDA, FIRST AUTHORISED EDITION, engraved portrait frontispiece, faint abrasion mark and remnants of early ownership signature to frontispiece verso, previous owner's ink signature to head title, faint marginal staining to first few leaves, scattered spotting, contemporary calf, gilt, slight bumping to corners and extremities, [Wing P2033], folio, by J. M. for H. Herringman, 1667.

♣ The daughter of a London merchant, Katherine Philips was probably the first English female poet to have her work published. She was best known by her pseudonym 'Orinda.' This is the first authorised edition of this work, following a 1664 pirated edition. This is perhaps the most famous English collection of poems by a woman prior to 1700.

Browne (Sir Thomas).- Brown (Edward) AN ACCOUNT OF SEVERAL TRAVELS THROUGH A GREAT PART OF GERMANY...WHEREIN THE MINES, BATHS, AND OTHER CURIOSITIES OF THOSE PARTS ARE TREATED OF, 6 engraved plates, 3 double-page and/or folding, printer's catalogue to verso of final text leaf, lacking final blank, SIGNED PRESENTATION INSCRIPTION FROM THE AUTHOR'S FATHER SIR THOMAS BROWNE TO NEVILLE CATELYN to head of title, plates with a few short tears along folds, some scattered spotting, contemporary mottled sheep, rebacked, covers worn, [Kress S1447; Wing B5109], 4to, Printed for Benj. Tooke, 1677.

* Autographs by Sir Thomas Browne are of a very great rarity. The inscription reads "Neville Catelyn dedit Tho: Browne equus Amatus". Sir Thomas Browne (1605-1682) polymath and author of varied works on science, medicine and religion, including Religio Medici. His eldest son Edward was also a physician, and travelled extensively throughout Europe. A pencil note on the rear pastedown suggests that Neville Catelyn was both a neighbour and distant relation of the Browne family. This notable work of travel contains considerable discussion of mining in central Europe. The plates include the whirlpool in the Danube, the Bear garden in Dresden, and the quicksilver miners of Idria.

Provenance: C. Sutton (ink inscription to fore-edge of title); Arthur Cugell (ink inscription to pastedown, dated 1837); Kenneth Garth Huston (bookplate).

Astronomy.- [Edwards (John)] COMETOMANTIA. A DISCOURSE OF COMETS, ONLY EDITION, lacking initial blank, title browned and laid down, lower right corner of title defective with loss to a few words, mostly of imprint, blind stamp of Unitarian Home Missionary College, N1 with tear to inner margin, affecting some text, U4 with small hole to a couple of letters, some light spotting and finger-soiling, front free endpaper detached, later vellum, rebacked, leather label to spine, 8vo, [Wing E199], Printed for Brab. Aylmer, [1684].

A Rare in commerce, we can trace one copy at auction since 1946. The book treats both the physics and meaning of comets, discussing (as the title page indicates) their "substance, place, time, magnitude, motion, number, colour, figure, kinds, names, and more especially their prognosticks, significations and presages."

Foundational work of American Independence.- Sidney (Algernon) DISCOURSES CONCERNING GOVERNMENT, FIRST EDITION, sig. B with 1-3 only (as often) but catchwords and pagination correct, title foxed, ink verse to title verso, some marginal water-staining towards beginning and occasional foxing, contemporary mottled calf, worn, part of leather on upper cover missing and board beneath exposed, [Wing S3761], folio, Printed, and are to be sold by the Booksellers of London and Westminster, 1698.

* Sidney's most important work and the one that cost him his life. An attack on the divine right of kings, Discourses concerning Government argued that individuals should have the right to choose their own form of government. Along with Locke's Two Treatises on Government, the present work was studied by Thomas Jefferson in particular and is regarded as a critical text in the founding of the United States of America.

Provenance: "E Libris Petri Tom." ink inscription dated in the year of publication on front free endpaper.

Mandeville (Bernard) A TREATISE OF THE HYPOCHONDRIACK AND HYSTERICK PASSIONS, FIRST EDITION, 8pp. advertisement for W. Taylor at end, erased ink inscription to front free endpaper, foxing and light browning to first few leaves, the odd spot elsewhere but generally a clean copy, contemporary panelled calf, rebacked, with original worn back-strip laid down, rubbed, lower joint split at head, upper cover becoming loose, 8vo, Printed and Sold by Dryden Leach...and W. Taylor, 1711.

The first book on mental maladies orientated towards the patient rather than the teaching of other practitioners (Hunter & Macalpine, Psychiatry p.296).

Newton (Sir Isaac) THE CHRONOLOGY OF ANCIENT KINGDOMS AMENDED TO WHICH IS PREFIX'D, A SHORT CHRONICLE FROM THE FIRST MEMORY OF THINGS IN EUROPE, TO THE CONQUEST OF PERSIA BY ALEXANDER THE GREAT, FIRST EDITION, 3 folding engraved plates (1 with very small hole, small loss), extensive manuscript annotations in ink and pencil to lower margin in a nineteenth century hand, some marginal foxing, small damp-stain to gutter foot, browning to peripheral leaves, modern half morocco, some minor soiling, 4to, for J. Tonson et al., 1728.

♣ First edition, the rarer issue with a new and revised title page, indicating an Irish Dublin distribution by Smith and Bruce, with whom Tonson appears to have done a deal. Nineteenth century annotations, to approximately over 100 pages, in neat, spare small hand; no indication as to authorship, but clear substantial knowledge of the classics, and also biblical allusions. Annotations begin on page 6-7, where there is a correction to Herodotus, and continue, referring to Sparta: "Nothing can be more uncertain than such a computation, The Kings of Sparta were in direct descent, and might reign nearly as many generations. But even generations are extremely unequal...." A remarkable even acerbic encounter with Newton, with whose classical knowledge the annotator is not at all content.

Mathematics.- [Berkeley (George, Bishop of Cloyne)] THE ANALYST; OR, A DISCOURSE ADDRESSED TO AN INFIDEL MATHEMATICIAN, second edition, woodcut diagrams, final advertisement f., G1v & G2r with small brown square of offsetting from previously inserted item (text perfectly legible), Printed for J. and R. Tonson and S. Draper in the Strand, 1754 BOUND WITH [Berkeley (George, Bishop of Cloyne)] A Miscellany, containing several tracts on various subjects, FIRST ENGLISH EDITION, FAMILY PRESENTATION COPY, woodcut tail-pieces, [Keynes 141; Goldsmiths' 8683; Rothschild 383; Sabin 4877], Printed for J. and R. Tonson and S. Draper in the Strand, 1752, together 2 works in 1 vol., later grey and brown pencil marginalia and marking of text, some spotting and light staining, burgundy leather spine label loosely inserted, contemporary calf, gilt, covers with wide floral borders, spine in compartments and with garland and stylised floral decoration, joints split, but holding firm, spine ends and corners worn, rubbed and scuffed, 8vo

♣ I: Berkeley's important satire on 'free-thinking', and in particular the Astronomer Royal Sir Edmund Halley. It attacks the foundations of mathematics with the same ferocity as the author felt religious truths were attacked by 'free-thinkers'. He claimed to uncover numerous gaps in proof, attacked the use of infinitesimals, the diagonal of the unit square, and the very existence of numbers. The overall aim was not so much to mock mathematicians, like Christians, relied upon incomprehensible 'mysteries' in the foundations of their reasoning. II: Includes 'Prospect of planting Arts and Learning in America'; 'A Proposal for Better Supplying Churches in our Foreign Plantations, and for converting the Savage Americans to Christianity'; 'De motu' (against Newton); and 'Farther Thoughts on Tar-Water';

Provenance: 'The gift of Jos: Berkeley Esq. to El: Berkeley ?1768. The gift of El: Berkeley to her dear son..' (ink inscription to head of title of Miscellany).

John Ruskin's copy.- [Lyttelton (George, Lord)] DIALOGUES OF THE DEAD, second edition, JOHN RUSKIN'S COPY WITH HIS INK OWNERSHIP INSCRIPTION "JOHN RUSKIN 6TH DEC. 1881" TO FRONT FREE ENDPAPER AND EXTENSIVE PENCIL UNDERLININGS OR MARGINAL MARKINGS TO C.65 PAGES OF WHICH C.15 WITH WRITTEN COMMENTS OR EXCLAMATIONS IN RUSKIN'S HAND, some light foxing, attractive contemporary red morocco gilt, covers with foliate borders with thistle tooling to corners, spine a little darkened, joints rubbed, 8vo, 1760.

 \clubsuit Ruskin's annotated copy of this eighteenth-century meditation on death.

Ruskin's comments include two references to Carlyle as well as comments on Cadmus and Hercules. A copy of this work is recorded as having been gifted from Ruskin to Sheffield in 1881, with his comment to the title: "The wisest book, within its adopted limits, that I ever read." Ruskin was clearly enamoured of the work as he seemingly obtained the present copy in the same year, annotating it in a similarly effusive manner.

Provenance: Sold as part of a lot of 5 books in the final portion of Ruskin's library sale, Sotheby's 18th May, 1931.

Norwich art of shooting.- Page (Thomas) THE USE OF SHOOTING FLYING: FAMILIARLY EXPLAIN'D BY WAY OF DIALOGUE. CONTAINING DIRECTIONS FOR THE CHOICE OF GUNS FOR VARIOUS OCCASIONS. AN ACCOUNT OF DIVERS EXPERIMENTS, DISCOVERING THE EXECUTION OF BARRELS OF DIFFERENT LENGTHS AND BORES, FIRST EDITION, title with woodcut typographic ornament, woodcut head-pieces and decorative border to first initial, final advertisement f. 'A catalogue of clocks, watches, guns and other machines, made and sold by T. Page, Norwich.', contemporary ink marginalia (cropped) and underlining, lower margin of title restored, trimmed, occasional spotting or light staining, lightly browned, later light blue wrappers, lightly stained and creased, [Schwerdt II, p.58; Chute Shooting Flying 493 'very rare'], 8vo, Norwich, Printed by J. Crouse, and sold by the author, T. Page, 1766.

* Rare first edition of the third book in English on shooting; the first of which in prose. The text takes the form of a dialogue between an experienced shooter 'Aimwell' and a young novice 'Friendly'. Includes technical information on the length and bore of gun barrels, sizes of shot and charges, and the distances and accuracy achieved with different combinations. Thomas Page was a Norwich maker of guns, watches and clocks, who also made and sold surgical appliances.

Sociology.- Ferguson (Adam) AN Essay ON THE HISTORY OF CIVIL SOCIETY, FIRST EDITION, A1 lower margin repaired and with short neat tear at lower inner gutter, spotted, some staining, lightly browned, antique style half calf, gilt spine in compartments and with a red morocco label, [Goldsmiths' 10264; Higgs 3973; Kress 6432], 4to, London & Edinburgh, Printed for A. Millar & T. Caddel...and A. Kincaid & J. Bell, 1767.

A wide-margined copy of this classic of the Scottish Enlightenment. Ferguson's 'diagnosis of the problems of advanced commercial society was an assertive civic version of the Scottish attempt to work out the co-existence of wealth and virtue ... The real danger in modern times, he said, was not luxury, but political laziness. Riches and material well-being did not in themselves cause or imply moral degeneration. Modern commercial success, however, encouraged the well-to-do to stay out of politics, hence away from virtuous life. What matters, then, is not the wealth amassed by members of society, but the retaining of their political personae: a trader, a craftsman, or a man of the world must never cease to be a citizen.' (ODNB). Ferguson was Professor of Moral Philosophy at the University of Edinburgh, and a leader of the Scottish Enlightenment.

[Evans (Mary Ann)], "George Eliot". FELIX HOLT, 3 vol., 1866; The Spanish Gypsy, 1868, FIRST EDITIONS, half-titles, uniformly bound in contemporary polished tan calf, by Riviere & Son, spines richly gilt with red and green morocco labels, inner gilt dentelles, spines slightly sunned, some very light rubbing but a handsome set, t.e.g., Edinburgh & London.

Provenance: From the library of the great American book collector Robert Hoe (1839-1909). Among many other major rarities, Hoe's magnificent and exceptionally large library included two copies of the Gutenberg Bible (one on vellum, one on paper), a superb copy of the First Folio (now at the Folger), and the exceptionally rare first edition of Malory's Mort d'Arthur. His library was dispersed over the course of four highly competitive sales (1911-12), realising a world-record price for a book collection (almost $2 million in total). A founder and first president of the Grolier Club, Hoe was "a lover of fine bindings, and his library is rich in specimens of the work of all the great binders, ancient and modern" (bookplate on front pastedown of each volume).

American War of Independence.- The following paper is reprinted in New-York by authority, with the remarks subjoined to it. By the Congress OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. MANIFESTO. "THESE UNITED STATES, HAVING BEEN DRIVEN TO HOSTILITIES BY THE OPPRESSIVE AND TYRANNOUS MEASURES OF GREAT BRITAIN...", 4pp., [New York, James Rivington], [c.1778] BOUND WITH TO their Excellencies the Earl of Carlisle, Sir Henry Clinton... At a late Meeting of the Merchants of this city, it was represented that the Inhabitants were particularly desirous of expressing the high sense they entertained of the merit of his Majesty's Commissions and to explain their sentiments on the very important situation of affairs..., 3pp., [New York, James Rivington], [c.1778] AND Collection of Papers, that have been published at different Times, relating to the Proceedings of His Majesty's Commissioners..., errata f., [Sabin 14380], New York, James Rivington, 1778 AND Eden (WIlliam) Four Letters to the Earl of Carlisle, FIRST EDITION, lacking half-title, light browning, for B. White, 1779 AND Eden (William) A Fifth Letter to the Earl of Carlisle, FIRST EDITION, lacking half-title, [Sabin 21828], for B.White, 1780, together 6 works in 1 vol., contemporary calf, spine gilt with red and green morocco labels, upper joint a little cracked, light rubbing to extremities, 8vo.

The Eden family copy of a remarkable collection of rare papers largely relating to the American War of Independence.

The first work comprises a near-contemporary copy of Congress's Manifesto, first published by John Dunlap as a broadside in Philadelphia, October, 1778. This was in response to Carlisle and Eden's own Manifesto and Proclamation published earlier in the same month which represented their final attempt at achieving reconciliation between Britain and America.

The second work deals with the Proclamation of the Commissioners of Sept. 26th whereby the New York merchants were permitted to ship one million pounds of produce to England, and petitions for an extension of the permit to include the merchants of Rhode Island also. This is followed by a further Proclamation of the Commissioners, dated November 18th, extending the license of the merchants of both New York and Rhode Island to trade with the mother country.

The third work is an address by the loyalist David Mathews, along with 22 other citizens, addressed to the Earl of Carlisle, Henry Clinton and William Eden, stating their loyalty to British government.

Collations of copies of the Collection of Papers appear to vary with some copies ending after the 4 unnumbered appendix leaves (as in ESTC) while others apparently include the first two items listed here (as possibly in Sabin). The only example of the work we could trace at auction in the last 80 years contained the first two works but not the third. Copies of the first four works appeared in the Caplin sale of 1918, we can trace 1 or 2 examples of the first two appearing at auction since but no examples of the third.

& Scarce in retail. Last sold at auction in 1979.

Marshall Hall (1790-1857), and English physician who had undertaken a 15-month journey in America, argues that for demographic, economic, and moral reasons the emancipation of slaves is a necessity rather than a choice. This imperative is complicated, however, by the fact that the United States suffered from a "two-fold slavery:" the first being the enslavement of millions of black; the second, and more pernicious in his view, being the "prejudice" and "oppression" suffered by free blacks.

PHÆDON;

OR, THE

DEATH OF SOCRATES.

By MOSES MENDELSSOHN,

A JEW, LATE OF BERLIN.

TRANSLATED FROM THE GERMAN.

LONDON:

Printed for the AUTHOR, by J. COOPER, Bow Street, Covent Garden.

M.DCC.LXXXIX.

Mendelssohn (Moses) PHAEDON; OR, THE DEATH OF SOCRATES, translated by Charles Cullen, half-title, very faint spotting to prelims, very marginal stain to few ff., otherwise internally very clean, later cloth, rather faded, joint split, corners bumped, 8vo, J. Cooper, 1789.

* Very rare. Moses Mendelssohn (1729-86) is considered the father of the Jewish Enlightenment and the last great Leibnizian in the German philosophical tradition. One of his most successful works was this dialogue on the immortality of the soul, modelled on Plato's Phaedo. Mendelssohn sought to recast Plato's proofs of the soul's immortality by adding such arguments as are supplied by modern philosophy. Like its ancient ancestor, Mendelssohn's dialogue includes an account of the death of Socrates - an important figure in 18th-century Europe. Phaedon: or, The Death of Socrates, originally published in German in 1767 and translated by Charles Cullen in 1789, has never been rendered into modern English. Cullen's translation is thus the only recourse for present-day scholars who cannot read German. It is long out of print and difficult to find, even in the largest academic libraries.

Coleridge family copy.-?Cottonian binding.- Godwin (William)

LIVES OF EDWARD AND JOHN PHILIPS, NEPHEWS AND PUPILS OF MILTON, FIRST EDITION, half-title, 3 engraved portraits (including frontispiece), offsetting, occasional spotting, CONTEMPORARY ?COTTONIAN BINDING of red and black patterned fabric over boards, manuscript label to spine, spine faded and worn at head and near foot, upper joint split, but holding, rubbed, 4to (binding 300 x 232mm.), Longman, Hurst, Rees, Orme, and Brown, 1815.

* Cottonian bindings are associated with the library of the romantic poet Robert Southey. The books were covered by his own daughters, and those of other romantic poets, including Sara Coleridge and Dora Wordsworth.

Provenance: Coleridge family copy (bookplate of Bernard, 2nd Baron Coleridge, and an 1857 signature of another unidentified member of the Coleridge family to front free endpaper).

£500 - 700

Juvenile game.- THE PRETTY YOUNG PLAYFUL INNOCENT LAMB. A NEW GAME OF QUESTIONS AND COMMANDS, 14 half-page hand-coloured wood-engraved illustrations (including frontispiece and title vignette), offsetting, some spotting or staining, lightly browned, loose in original buff wrappers, engraved pictorial label to upper cover with title reading 'A Pretty Young Innocent Playfull Lamb', joints splitting, but holding, creased and rubbed, 12mo, Printed for E. Wallis, [watermarked 1818].

* Rare at auction. A children's game played along the same lines as the traditional game of 'I went to market'. The game begins with a question and an answer. As the game progresses another question is asked, and another response added. Each player must remember and recite all of the lines spoken prior to their turn. Any player making a mistake pays a forfeit.

Keats (John) ENDYMION: A POETIC ROMANCE, FIRST EDITION, half-title, with imprint "T. Miller, Noble Street, Cheapside" to verso, single line errata leaf, bound without the 2 leaves of advertisements (as often), occasional light foxing, lower hinge cracked but holding firm, 19th century half green morocco over marbled boards, gilt, by W. Pratt, lightly rubbed, heavier to spine ends and corners, upper joint repaired but cracked, t.e.g., others uncut, [MacGillivray 2; Hayward 232], 8vo, 1818.

An excellent example of Keats' first major work, containing one of his most enduring lines: "A thing of beauty is a joy for ever". This copy is without the additional 5-line errata slip. While its absence is sometimes believed to indicate a first issue (including by MacGillivray), Hayward has shown that both errata leaves were printed before the book was published, and therefore do not constitute an issue point.

Provenance: Fernand Spaak (bookplate).

£1,500 - 2,000

Conjuring.- "MAGIC VOLUME (THE)!", 48ff. most with hand-colour lithographs on either side, printed instructions laid onto inside front cover, original marbled wrappers, splitting to spine, light creasing, 12mo, S. H. & E. A., 1840.

A rare trick volume, Library Hub lists the Bodleian copy only. The book appears to change contents depending on how the pages are flicked through, an effect achieved with different-sized tabs along the fore-edge. Among the several repeated illustrations appears Queen Victoria as a Queen of Hearts with her birth and marriage dates.

Tyser (C.R., translator) and others. THE MEJELLE, FIRST EDITION IN ENGLISH, title browned with ink ownership name to corner, contemporary half sheep, rubbed, endpapers renewed, 8vo, Cyprus, Government Printing Press, 1901.

♣ First edition in English translated from Al-Majallah al-Ahkam al-Adaliyyah. The civil code of the Ottoman Empire in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. It was the first attempt to codify a part of Islamic law of the Ottoman empire. The code was prepared by a commission headed by Ahmet Cevdet Pasha, issued in sixteen volumes from 1869 to 1876 and entered into force in the year 1877. In its structure and approach it was clearly influenced by the earlier European codifications. It remained in force in Turkey until 1926, Albania until 1928, Lebanon until 1932, Syria until 1949, Iraq until 1953, Cyprus until the 1960s, The British Mandate for Palestine and, later, Israel formally until 1984. The Majalla also remains the basis of civil law in Jordan and Kuwait.

Early report on the Holocaust.- MASS EXTERMINATION OF JEWS IN GERMAN OCCUPIED POLAND (THE), original printed stapled wrappers, some slight rust-staining, but a very good copy generally, [London], Hutchinson, for the Polish Ministry of Foreign Affairs, [1943]; with the First Day Cover and stamp issued to commemorate the report by Polish postal services in 2020, 8vo (2)

* The first official announcement of the Final Solution, the systematic mass-murder of Jews by the Nazis, which led to the Holocaust. The pamphlet is based on reports filed by Jan Karski, a Polish secret agent who operated in Nazi-occupied Poland. From 1940 to 1942, Karski witnessed the extermination of Jews in the Warsaw Ghetto, the Belzec death camp and in other locales, and reported back to the exiled Polish Government in London. The pamphlet also contains the full text of "Raczynski's Note", a letter by Edward Raczynski, Polish Minister of Foreign Affairs, delivered to the 26 government signatories of the Declaration by United Nations on 10th December 1942, introducing the reality of the Holocaust to the world. Raczynski is commemorated on the stamp of the First Day Cover.

Especially for His Hanaur gudge Thurgood Marshall -Well Dane !_ You did it !! Sincerely, Langston Harlem, October, 1961

Hughes (Langston) THE LANGSTON HUGHES READER, FIRST EDITION, PRESENTATION COPY INSCRIBED TO THURGOOD MARSHALL, original clothbacked boards, dust-jacket with several defects and creases, 8vo, New York, 1958.

A SUPERB ASSOCIATION COPY. The inscription reads: "Especially for His Honour Judge Thurgood Marshall - Well Done! - You did it!! Sincerely, Langston. Harlem, October, 1961." Marshall himself has also signed the book on the half-title.

Thurgood Marshall (1908-93) was the first African-American to serve on the Supreme Court, appointed by President Lyndon B. Johnson in 1967. He was a prominent Civil Rights lawyer who argued (and won) many cases relating to racial segregation in schools, most notably the landmark Brown v. Board of Education decision in 1954. Hughes and Marshall met while students at Lincoln University in Pennsylvania, living for some time in the same dormitory together.

This book would presumably have been given to Marshall when President Kennedy appointed him to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit in October 1961.

 $\stackrel{\scriptstyle <}{_{\sim}}$ An attractive COPY of a key horror novel with a remarkable literary provenance.

While Greene was not a writer of horror fiction, the influence of the genre in his writing is clearly apparent in his almost other-worldly villains.; both Brighton Rock's Pinkie and Harry Lime of The Third Man appear to be invulnerable and hold a hypnotic influence over those they command.

Provenance: Bought from Gekowski by Clive Hirschhorn, April, 1990 (sold, his sale, Bloomsbury Auctions, 25th October, 2012, lot 366). £8,000 - 12,000

Waugh (Evelyn) WAUGH IN ABYSSINIA, FIRST EDITION, abrasion to pastedowns, original cloth, slight shelf-lean, light bumping and fraying to spine tips and corners, first issue dust-jacket, without the usual pastedown to front flap, slight toning to spine, neat repairs along joints and fore-edges, spine ends and corners a little chipped, closed tear to head of upper panel, neat repairs to front flap, rubbed, still in effect an excellent example, 8vo, 1936.

A rare dust-jacket in first issue. Waugh took a keen interest in the exact presentation of this volume and was horrified to discover that the text on the front flap of the dust-jacket had been printed without his approval. In a diary entry dated 17th October 1936 he notes: ""Went to Longman Green to find they had composed a blurb giving exactly the impression of W. in A. which I had tried to supress". After some debate with Longman's, it was agreed that a piece of card with new text would be pasted over the front flap.

TERMS OF SALE

The sale of goods at our Live Auctions and your legal relationship, as Bidder and/or Buyer, with us and the Seller are governed by our Conditions of Business.

Please read our Conditions of Business carefully before bidding and contact us if you have any questions. Please note that if you register to bid and/or bid at auction you will be deemed to have agreed to be bound by and will comply with our Conditions of Business. If registering to buy over a live online Bidding Platform, including our own BidFORUM platform, you will be asked prior to every auction to confirm your agreement to our Conditions of Business before you are able to place a bid. You may also be asked to accept any third party terms and conditions when bidding via a third party Bidding Platform.

We may change our Conditions of Business from time to time, without notice to you.

We can be contacted in the following ways:

Telephone: +44 (0)20 7871 2640

Email: info@forumauctions.co.uk

Post: FAO Head of Operations, Forum Auctions Limited, Ingate Works, 4 Ingate Place, Battersea, London SW8 3NS

Definitions and interpretation

In these Terms of Sale, the words 'you', 'yours', etc. refer to you as the Bidder or Buyer as the context requires. The words "we", "us", etc. refer to the Auctioneer. Any reference to a 'Clause' is to a clause of these Terms of Sale unless stated otherwise.

To make these Terms of Sale easier to read, we have given the following words a specific meaning:

"Auctioneer" means Forum Auctions Limited, a company registered in England and Wales with registration number 10048705 and VAT number 236 0168 28 and whose registered office is located at Ingate Works, 4 Ingate Place, Battersea, London SW8 3NS and/or its individual authorised auctioneer, as appropriate;

"Bidder" means a person participating or planning to participate in bidding at our auction;

"Bidding Platform" means any online bidding platform over which an auction is conducted allowing bidders to place bids. Bidding Platforms may be operated by the Auctioneer or by a third party service provider on the Auctioneer's behalf;

"Business Day" means any day that is not a weekend or public holiday in England and the Auctioneer is open for business;

"Buyer" means the Bidder who makes the highest bid for a Lot accepted by the Auctioneer by the fall of the hammer;

"Conditions of Business" means:

- (a) these Terms of Sale (bidding in Online Auctions is governed by our separate Online Terms of Sale);
- (b) the General Information for Buyers at Auction available in our catalogue and on our Website;
- (c) the listing of the Lot in our catalogue and on our Website including any special terms or symbols (please note that the most up-to-date listing will be on our Website);
- (d) any additional notice in relation to a Lot, whether in the saleroom, announced during an auction, on any Bidding Platform or our Website (in the event of any doubt about whether additional notices apply to the sale of a Lot, the information listed on our Website at the time of the auction will be deemed conclusive); and
- (e) our Website Terms of Use;

"Deliberate Forgery" means:

- (a) a copy or imitation made in our reasonable opinion with the intention of deceiving as to authorship, attribution, authenticity, origin, date, age, period, culture, provenance, source or material;
- (b) described in the catalogue entry (as amended by any saleroom or Website notice) without qualification or any indication that there may be any uncertainty or conflict of opinion in relation to the work being such a copy or imitation; and
- (c) which at the date of the auction or sale had a value materially less than it would have had if it had been as described;

"Estimate" means the price range within which, in our opinion, a Lot may reasonably be expected to sell. A reference to the "low Estimate" means the lower figure in such price range;

"Hammer Price" means the level of the highest bid accepted by the Auctioneer for a Lot by the fall of the hammer;

"Live Auction" means a live public auction where members of the public are given the possibility of attending the sale in person.

"Lot(s)" means an item offered for sale or a group of items offered together;

"Online Auction" means an auction held over the Website or any Bidding Platform where members of the public are not given the possibility of attending the sale in person;

"Premium" means the fee that we will charge you on your purchase of a Lot to be calculated as set out in Clause 9.1.2 of these Terms of Sale;

"Pledge" means any security or charge over a Lot in favour of ourselves or any third party;

"Reserve" means the minimum Hammer Price at which a Lot may be sold;

"Seller" means the person(s) who consign Lots for sale at our auctions;

"Terms of Sale" means these standard terms of the contract of sale that a Bidder enters into when registering to bid in any Live Auction, as amended or updated from time to time;

"VAT" means Value Added Tax or any equivalent sales tax at the rate from time to time applicable;

"Website" means our website available at www.forumauctions.co.uk; and

"Website Terms of Use" means the terms of use of our Website as amended from time to time.

- 1. The contract between you, us and the Seller
- 1.1 Unless the Auctioneer is selling on its own behalf, the Auctioneer acts as agent for and on behalf of the Seller and the contract for sale is between the Buyer and the Seller.
- 1.2 Subject to the Auctioneer's discretion at Clause 3.2, the contract for sale of a Lot is formed on the fall of the hammer.
- 1.3 The contractual relationship between Bidders or Buyers, the Auctioneer and the Seller in relation to any Live Auction is governed by our Conditions of Business.
- 1.4 If you breach these Terms of Sale, you may be responsible for damages and/or losses suffered by a Seller or us. If we are contacted by a Seller who wishes to bring a claim against you, we may at our discretion provide the Seller with information or assistance in relation to that claim.
- 1.5 As agent for the Seller, we will not have any responsibility for any default or breach of obligations by you or the Seller (unless we are the Seller of the Lot).
- 1.6 If you purchase an unsold Lot after an auction, the contract for sale is formed when the sale is agreed in writing and the Price of the Lot shall be as set out at clause 9 except that any reference to Hammer Price shall be read as the agreed sale price. So far as appropriate, the remainder of these Terms of Sale shall apply to the sale as they would to an auction sale.

2. Bidder registration

- 2.1 You must register your details with us before bidding and provide us with any requested proof of identity, billing information and any further client due diligence information and documentation that we require, in a form acceptable to us.
- 2.2 We may at our complete discretion refuse to register any Bidder or delay registration if we are not satisfied with the information or documentation provided or the Bidder's creditworthiness, including if the Bidder has previously defaulted in paying for or collecting purchases.
- 2.3 If you are a returning Bidder, we may at our discretion require that you provide updated identity and other documentation before permitting you to bid in an auction.
- 2.4 We do not undertake to register any Bidder in time for any specific auction.
- 2.5 If you are bidding on behalf of another person, you will need to disclose such information in advance of the auction and that person may also need to complete our registration and client due diligence process and provide us with written authority to accept bids from you on his/her/its behalf. If we are not informed of these arrangements in advance of an auction or do not have clear written authority in place, you will be deemed to be bidding as principal for your own account.
- 2.6 If you intend to bid on a Lot using pre-approved financing by a third party lender, you must notify us at the time of registration or at the time of securing financing, obtain our agreement to the arrangements and provide any further information or documentation that we may require.
- 2.7 You may de-register at any time on request. This will leave any accrued rights and obligations unaffected.

3. Bidding procedures

- 3.1 You may bid in any of the following ways following successful registration to bid:
 - 3.1.1 in person;
 - 3.1.2 by telephone, in which case you must make such arrangements at least 24 hours before the start of the auction;
 - 3.1.3 by leaving a commission bid at least 1 hour before the start of the auction, which we may execute on your behalf. Commission bids will be accepted with reference to our standard bidding increments and any off-increment bids may be reduced to the next increment immediately below at the Auctioneer's sole discretion. Neither we nor our employees or agents will be responsible for any failure to execute your commission bid. Where two or more commission bids at the same level are recorded we have the right, at our sole discretion, to prefer one over any others, without providing any reasons; or

- 3.1.4 online bidding via our BidFORUM platform or via another Bidding Platform. In the case of bids via BidFORUM our Website Terms of Use and for bids via another Bidding Platform, any additional terms of use or conditions imposed by the third party provider including any additional charges will also apply.
- 3.2 The Bidder placing the highest bid for a Lot accepted by the Auctioneer on the fall of the hammer is the successful Buyer and bound by the contract formed pursuant to Clause 1.2 and governed by the Conditions of Business pursuant to Clause 1.3, unless the Auctioneer has for any reason at its/his/her option refused the bid, reopened the bidding or cancelled the sale and reoffered the Lot. Any dispute about a bid will be settled at our sole discretion, giving due consideration to any circumstances and acting reasonably. We may settle disputes at our discretion in any way we think fit including by re-offering the Lot and our decision will be final. If there is any discrepancy between our record of an auction and the information provided in any communication to you, our record will prevail.
- 3.3 We may withdraw a Lot at any time prior to or during the sale of the Lot. We will not be liable to you for our decision to withdraw a Lot.
- 3.4 We may bid on Lots on behalf of the Seller up to one bidding increment below the Reserve.
- 3.5 We may at our sole discretion refuse to accept any bid.
- 3.6 We do not accept responsibility for any bids missed by the Auctioneer.
- 3.7 Bidding increments will be set at the Auctioneer's sole discretion.

4. Technical issues

We are not responsible for any technical problems that you may experience while connecting to and using our Website and/or BidFORUM or participating in any auctions, including but not limited to any loss of internet connection, problems with using our bidding software or any hardware faults. We do not accept any liability for any delay or failure in placing a bid, any failure to execute bids or any errors or omissions owing to technical failings, whether on our part or yours.

5. Inspection of Lots

- 5.1 The Auctioneer provides descriptions, Estimates, illustrations and condition reports (on request) to assist Bidders in deciding whether to bid on a Lot but subject to Clause 8 accepts no responsibility for their accuracy.
- 5.2 Each Lot offered for sale is available for inspection. We strongly recommend that you inspect any Lots that you are interested in prior to bidding at the auction. You are responsible for your decision to bid for a particular Lot and for undertaking your own due diligence in relation to the Lot. If you bid on a Lot, you will be deemed to have carefully inspected the Lot and satisfied yourself regarding its quality and condition.

6. Estimates

Estimates are provided as a guide to what, in our opinion, the sale price of a Lot is reasonably likely to be. The Estimate is not a guarantee of what the actual selling price or value may be and cannot be relied on as such. The estimate does not take into account Premium, VAT or any other applicable charges.

7. Seller's warranties

- 7.1 The Seller warrants to us and to you in relation to each Lot that:
 - 7.1.1 the Seller is the owner of the Lot for sale or a joint owner of the Lot acting with the co-owner's consent or, if acting on the owner's behalf, is authorised by the owner to offer and sell the Lot at auction;
 - 7.1.2 the Seller is able to transfer clear legal title to the Lot, subject to any restrictions set out in the Lot description, to you free from any third party rights or claims; and

- 7.1.3 as far as the Seller is aware, the main characteristics of the Lot set out in the auction catalogue (as amended by any notice displayed in the saleroom, on our Website or any Bidding Platform or announced by the Auctioneer at the auction) are correct.
- 7.2 If any of the Seller's warranties above are found not to be true, neither we nor the Seller will be liable, under any circumstances, to pay you any sums over and above the Price.
- 7.3 Save as expressly set out above, all other warranties, conditions or other terms which might have effect between the Seller and you or be implied or incorporated by statute, common law or otherwise are excluded to the fullest extent that they can be lawfully excluded.

8. Descriptions and condition

- 8.1 Our descriptions of the Lot will be based on: (a) information provided to us by the Seller of the Lot (for which we are not liable); and (b) our opinion (as set out in Clause 8.3).
- 8.2 We will give you a number of opportunities to view and inspect the Lots before the auction. You (including any agents or consultants acting on your behalf) must satisfy yourself about the accuracy of any description of a Lot and of any other characteristics of a Lot relevant to your decision to place a bid. We shall not be responsible for your failure to properly inspect a Lot.
- 8.3 Any statements by us about any Lot, including but not limited to its authorship, attribution, authenticity, origin, date, age, period, culture, provenance, source, material, condition or estimated selling price, whether oral or in writing, are matters of our opinion genuinely held but are not to be relied on as a statement of fact or contractual representation. We do not warrant that we have carried out a detailed inspection of each Lot. Any references to dimensions or weight are approximate only.
- 8.4 Any photographs that we provide are for identification purposes only and may not reveal a Lot's condition or be accurate in colour or other features.
- 8.5 Please note that the majority of Lots sold by the Auctioneer are second-hand and will not be in perfect condition. Lots are sold "as is" at the time of the auction. Neither we nor the Seller accept any liability for the condition of any Lot.
- 8.6 Condition reports are provided by us free of charge (on request) as a guide for the Bidder/Buyer but are not intended to be exhaustive assessments of an item's condition and may not refer to all flaws or defects in an item. Furthermore, the Auctioneer and its employees are not trained conservators and can only offer their opinion on condition. You must rely on your own assessment or independent professional advice in relation to the condition of any Lot.

9. Our charges

- 9.1 As Buyer, you will pay us:
 - 9.1.1 the Hammer Price;
 - 9.1.2 Premium of 25% of the Hammer Price up to a Hammer Price of £300,000 plus 20% of the Hammer Pricefrom £300,001 to £3,000,000 plus 12.5% of the Hammer Price exceeding £3,000,000 plus VAT thereon (as set out in Clause 11);
 - 9.1.3 any VAT, Import VAT or other duties, fees or taxes applicable to the Lot (as set out at Clause 11);
 - 9.1.4 any artist's resale right royalty payable on the sale of the Lot (as set out at Clause 12);
 - 9.1.5 any additional charges payable by a late paying or defaulting Buyer under these Terms of Sale; and
 - 9.1.6 in respect of bids placed through certain Bidding Platforms operated by third party service providers, a charge of 5% of the Hammer Price plus VAT if applicable, together the "Price".

10. Buyer's warranties

- 10.1 You warrant to us that:
 - 10.1.1 any client due diligence information or documentation provided to us in accordance with Clause 2.1 is and continues to be true and accurate.
 - 10.1.2 the funds used to purchase the Lot are not the proceeds of any criminal activity, including tax evasion;
 - 10.1.3 you are not engaged in, or under investigation for, and have not been previously charged for or convicted of any offences in relation to money laundering, terrorist financing, tax evasion, fraud or other criminal behaviour;
 - 10.1.4 you are not subject to trade sanctions, embargoes or any other restrictions prohibiting you from doing business in the United Kingdom;
 - 10.1.5 if you are purchasing a Lot on behalf of a third party, you have:
 - a. complied with any applicable anti-money laundering and terrorist financing laws and regulations and conducted appropriate client due diligence on the third party ultimate buyer, have obtained and kept a record of documents required to establish that person's identity, and have no reason to suspect or believe that he/she/it is engaged in money laundering, terrorist financing, tax evasion, fraud or other criminal behaviour or subject to trade sanctions, embargoes or other restrictions prohibiting that person from doing business in the United Kingdom or that the funds provided by the third party are the proceeds of any criminal activity, including tax evasion;
 - b. you have authority to bid on that Lot on behalf of your principal; and
 - c. you have been placed in funds by your principal to cover the Price and any additional fees and charges

11. VAT and other duties

- 11.1 You shall be solely responsible for ascertaining the overall cost of your bid and paying any applicable VAT and other fees, taxes or duties payable in addition to the Hammer Price and Premium for a Lot.
- 11.2 We will charge VAT and other duties, fees and taxes at the current rate at the date of the auction. Please see the symbols used in the auction catalogue and our General Information for Buyers at Auction for an explanation of what those symbols mean.
- 11.4 It is your responsibility to establish whether a Lot may be subject to export restrictions, duties, taxes or fees.
- 11.5 Please note that Lots (in particular second-hand Lots) are unlikely to be in perfect condition. Lots are sold "as is" (i.e. as you see them at the time of the auction). Neither we nor the Seller accept any liability for the condition of second-hand Lots which the inspection of a Lot by the Buyer ought to have revealed.

12. Artist's resale royalty

- 12.1 Works by certain artists sold in the EU are subject to royalty fees accruing to the artist or their estate. The fees are levied in Euros on a sliding scale relative to Hammer Price and capped at €12,500 per item. We will collect these fees from you on behalf of the artist and add the GBP Sterling equivalent amount to your invoice calculated at the date of the auction by reference to the closing rate of exchange of the Bank of England.
- 12.2 Lots that may be subject to artist's resale right are marked in the catalogue and on our Website with the symbol: ARR.
- 12.3 If applicable, artist's resale right royalty (in Euros) is charged at:
 4% of the Hammer Price up to €50,000
 3% of the Hammer Price from €50,001 to €200,000
 1% of the Hammer Price from €200,001 to €350,000
 0.5% of the Hammer Price from €350,001 to €500,000
 0.25% of the Hammer Price above €500,000, subject to an overall cap of €12,500.

13. Payment

- 13.1 Following your successful bid on a Lot you will:
 - 13.1.1 immediately give to us, if not already provided to our satisfaction, any further proof of identity or other information that we may require; and
 - 13.1.2 unless we have agreed otherwise and subject to the terms of any Pledge, pay to us the Price within 3 Business Days of the date of the auction in cleared funds in GBP Sterling any way that we agree to accept payment including in cash (for which there is an aggregate upper limit of £8,000 for all purchases made in any auction). Please see our 'Make a Payment' page at https://www.forumauctions.co.uk/makepayment?ltemid =363 for further information about how to make a payment. A 3% fee is applied to payments made by all company credit cards and personal cards issued by banks outside the EU.
- 13.2 If payment is late, we reserve the right to charge interest on the Price or any part thereof in accordance with Clause 15.1.5.
- 13.3 If you owe us any money, we may use any payment made by you to repay prior debts before applying such monies towards your purchase of the Lot(s).
- 13.4 All Lots sold will be invoiced in the name of the registered Bidder at the address given to us at the time of registration and cannot be transferred to other names or addresses.

14. Ownership and collection of Lots

- 14.1 Ownership of a Lot will transfer to you only on receipt by us of the Price in full and in cleared funds provided your continuing compliance with Clause 10.
- 14.2 Risk of loss or damage to the Lot will pass to you at the fall of the Hammer or when you have otherwise purchased the Lot.
- 14.3 You may not claim or collect a Lot until you have paid for it and we are satisfied with the client due diligence information and documentation that you have provided. We may refuse to accept payment or release the Lot to you if we require further information or verification.
- 14.4 If you have purchased a Lot using third party pre-approved financing, with our knowledge and agreement, and the Lot remains subject to a Pledge, we will hold the Lot until we receive confirmation from the beneficiary of the Pledge that we are authorised to release the Lot. In such cases, time starts to run under Clauses 14.5 to 14.7 below from the date that we inform you that the Lot can be released, rather than the date of the auction.
- 14.5 You must (at your own expense) collect any Lots that you have purchased and paid for no later than 10 Business Days following the date of the auction.
- 14.6 If you do not collect the Lot within the time period at Clause 14.5, you will be responsible for removal, storage and insurance charges in relation to that Lot which will be no less than £1.50 per Lot per day.
- 14.7 If you do not collect a Lot that you have paid for within 45 days of the date of the auction, we may resell the Lot by auction or private treaty with the Estimate and Reserve set at our discretion. We will pay the proceeds of any such sale to you, but will deduct any storage charges or other sums that we have incurred in the storage and sale of the Lot. We reserve the right to charge you a selling commission at our standard rates on any such resale of the Lot.

15. Remedies for non-payment

- 15.1 If you fail to comply with these Terms of Sale, we may (acting on behalf of the Seller and ourselves) pursue one or more of the following measures:
 - 15.1.1 take action against you to recover the Price and/or pursue damages for breach of contract, including any fees, legal expenses or other costs that we incur;
 - 15.1.2 reverse the sale of the Lot to you and/or any other Lots sold to you (in which case we may charge you an administration fee of £150 plus VAT per Lot or, if lower, the Price of the Lot);

- 15.1.3 resell the Lot by auction or private treaty (in which case you will have to pay any deficit between the Price for the Lot and the Hammer Price we sell it for as well as the charges outlined in Clauses 14.6 and 15.1.5 and any other costs and expenses or legal fees incurred by us in reselling the Lot or any loss to us of Seller's commission). Please note that if we resell the Lot for a higher amount than the Hammer Price on the sale of the Lot to you, the additional sale proceeds will be paid to the Seller and we will retain any increase in Premium;
- 15.1.4 remove, store and insure the Lot at your expense until you pay the Price together with any removal, storage and insurance fees as set out in Clause 14.6 or we agree alternative arrangements;
- 15.1.5 charge interest at a rate of 1.5% per month on the Price or any part remaining unpaid after 10 Business Days have elapsed from the day of the auction;
- 15.1.6 assist the Seller in pursuing you for payment and/or damages including by revealing your identity and contact details;
- 15.1.7 keep the Lot, any other Lot sold to you or any item(s) consigned for sale by you as security for payment until you pay the Price;
- 15.1.8 apply any payments or part payments made by you towards part settlement of the Price due for the Lot or any other Lot purchased by you, or to any shortfall on the resale of any Lot pursuant to Clause 15.1.3 or to any outstanding removal, storage or insurance charges owed by you to us in relation to any Lot that you have purchased or to any loss or damage suffered by us as a result of your failure to comply with these Terms of Sale;
- 15.1.9 refuse to allow you to register to bid, reject or ignore bids from you or your agent at future auctions or impose conditions before we accept bids from you;
- 15.1.10 offset any amounts due from you against any amounts that we may owe you, including if we sell any Lots for you; and/or
- 15.1.11 take any other action we consider necessary.

16. Health and safety

Although we take reasonable precautions regarding health and safety, you are on our premises at your own risk. Please note the lay-out of the premises and security arrangements. Neither we nor our employees or agents are responsible for the safety of you or your property when you visit our premises, unless you suffer any injury to your person or damage to your property as a result of our, our employees' or our agents' negligence or wilful default.

17. Export and import restrictions

- 17.1 Exporting a Lot out of the United Kingdom or importing it into another country may be subject to legal requirements and restrictions depending on factors such as the type of goods, their age and monetary value and destination. It is your responsibility to ascertain what the requirements are in relation to any Lot and obtain the necessary export or import licence where applicable.
- 17.2 Lots made of restricted organic matter or endangered species are identified in the catalogue. These may be subject to prohibitions on export or import and otherwise may require licences. You are solely responsible for identifying and obtaining any necessary licence. The information provided in our catalogue reflects our reasonable opinion at the date of publication but is intended as guidance only and neither the Auctioneer nor the Seller make any representation or give any warranty as to whether any Lot is subject to a prohibition or restriction on export or import.
- 17.3 You acknowledge that your purchase of the Lot and fulfilment of your obligations under our Conditions of Business is not conditional on successfully obtaining an export, import or other licence or permit for any Lot and that you will pay for and collect the Lot regardless of whether a licence has been or is likely to be granted. We will not cancel your purchase of a Lot if for any reason it is refused a licence or is seized or confiscated by government authorities.

17.4 We may on request assist you with applying for a licence to export your Lot(s) out of the United Kingdom and will charge a fee for doing so to cover the costs of our time and out of pocket expenses.

18. Deliberate Forgeries

- 18.1 You may return any Lot which is found to be a Deliberate Forgery to us within twelve months of the date of the auction provided that you return the Lot to us at your expense in the same condition as when it was released to you, accompanied by a written report by a recognised expert on the subject matter identifying the Lot as a Deliberate Forgery with reference to the catalogue description and fully explaining the reasoning behind any conclusions drawn in the report.
- 18.2 If we are reasonably satisfied that the Lot is a Deliberate Forgery, we will cancel the sale of the Lot and refund the Price to you save that if any of the following circumstances apply:
 - 18.2.1 the catalogue description reflected the accepted view of experts as at the date of the auction;
 - 18.2.2 the Lot can only be shown to be a Deliberate Forgery on the basis of scientific examination which was not available at the time of the auction or in the circumstances was not practicable or reasonable to expect;
 - 18.2.3 you were not the original Buyer of the Lot named on the invoice for the Lot issued at the time of the sale; or
 - 18.2.4 you personally are not able to transfer clear legal title in and right to possession of the Lot to us, free of any claim, interest or restriction by anyone else, on the date of the return of the Lot to us, you will have no right to cancel the sale or receive a refund.
- 18.3 Should you successfully exercise your right under this Clause 18, we will not refund to you more than the Price for any Lot and will not in any circumstances be liable to you for any loss, damage, expense, costs, loss of profit, loss of business or loss of opportunity.

19. Limitation of our liability to you

- 19.1 We give no warranties in relation to any statements or representations made or information given in relation to any Lot by us or our employees or agents whether oral or in writing and accept no liability in connection therewith, including in relation to any errors or omissions unless Clause 18 applies.
- 19.2 We accept no liability in relation to any of the Seller's warranties at Clause 7 or any breach by the Seller of their obligations under our Conditions of Business.
- 19.3 We do not accept any responsibility to any Bidders for any failure to register a Bidder or any acts or omissions in relation to the sale of Lots and the conduct of our auctions and will not be liable for any loss, damage, expense, costs, loss of profit, loss of business or loss of opportunity as a result of participating in our auctions.
- 19.4 If we are found to be liable to you for any reason, our liability will be limited to the Price as paid by you to us for any Lot.
- 19.5 Notwithstanding the above, nothing in these Terms of Sale shall limit our liability (or that of our employees or agents) for:
 - 19.5.1 death or personal injury resulting from negligence;
 - 19.5.2 fraudulent misrepresentation; or
 - 19.5.3 any liability which cannot be excluded by law.

20. Notices

- 20.1 All notices or other communications between you and us regarding our Conditions of Business must be in writing and may be given:
 - 20.1.1 by delivering it by hand or sending by first class pre-paid post or Recorded Delivery or pre-paid airmail (to us at our registered office address at Ingate Works, 4 Ingate Place, Battersea, London SW8 3NS or to you at the address you provided to us at the time of registration unless we are advised otherwise in writing); or
 - 20.1.2 by email (to us at office@forumauctions.co.uk or to you at the email address provided by you at the time of registration unless we are advised otherwise in writing).
- 20.2 Notices will be deemed to have been received:
 - 20.2.1 if delivered by hand, on the day of delivery;
 - 20.2.2 if sent by first class pre-paid post or Recorded Delivery,
 2 Business Days after posting, exclusive of the day of posting;
 - 20.2.3 if sent by pre-paid airmail, 5 Business Days after posting, exclusive of the day of posting; or
 - 20.2.4 if sent by email, at the time of transmission unless sent on a day which is not a Business Day or after 17.00 in the place of receipt in which case they will be deemed to have been received on the next Business Day.

21. Data Protection

We will hold and process any personal data in relation to you in accordance with our Privacy Policy which can be accessed at: www.forumauctions.co.uk/privacy-policy.

22. General

- 22.1 We may at our sole discretion, though acting reasonably, refuse any person admission to our premises or attendance at our auctions.
- 22.2 Any rights we have to claim against you for breach of our Conditions of Business may be used by either us, our employees or agents, or the Seller, their employees or agents, as appropriate. Other than as set out in this Clause, no other person will have any rights to enforce the terms of our Conditions of Business.
- 22.3 Each of the Clauses of these Terms of Sale operates separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful, the remaining Clauses will remain in full force and effect.
- 22.4 Except as otherwise stated in these Terms of Sale, each of our rights and remedies: (a) are in addition to and not exclusive of any other rights or remedies under these Terms of Sale or general law; and (b) may be waived only in writing and specifically. Our delay in exercising or non-exercise of any right under these Terms of Sale is not a waiver of that or any other right. Our partial exercise of any right under these Terms of Sale will not preclude any further or other exercise of that right or any other right under these Terms of Sale. Our waiver of a breach of any term of these Terms of Sale will not operate as a waiver of breach of any other term or any subsequent breach of that term.
- 22.5 Our Conditions of Business and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with them (including any noncontractual claims or disputes) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and the parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
